

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

Subscription $1 Per Year, in Advance.

"I Come, the Herald of a Noisy World, the Sower of All Nations Lumbering at My Back."

All Kinds Job Printing Neatly Executed.

37th YEAR.

HARTFORD, KY., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1911.

NO. 17.

A STATEMENT BY LIVERMORE MAYOR

In Regard to the Lynching
Thursday Night.

UNDESIRABLE NEGRO CITIZEN Violated the Law and Was Unlawfully Put to Death."

CITIZENS REGRET MOB'S ACTION

Mr. V. P. Morton, mayor of Livermore, Ky., has issued the following statement in regard to the lynching of a negro there last Thursday night, fuller details of which appear on the third page of the Herald today:

"Clarence Mitchell, a white man, entered a pool room, used and managed by colored people, and was ordered out by the colored manager, the victim of the mob, and after Mitchell had gone out, some words were passed. The negro, who was in charge of the pool room, shot two shots at Mitchell, one taking effect, and which was at the time reported fatal. The negro ran to the opera house of J. D. Mitchell for protection. The city marshal was soon on the ground and had the negro under arrest, and a guard of five or six men to assist him.

"The sheriff was at once notified by the mayor of the city, and others, as there were probably about fifty people assembled at the entrance of the opera house.

"Everything was done that the mayor, marshal and other cool-headed citizens could do to keep down the mob, but before the sheriff arrived, it was not thought safe to attempt to take the negro from the lock-up, which was only a short distance away, and a short while before he did arrive, about fifteen men sprang the door open enough to break the bolt, entered the room where the marshal and guards and the negro, then handcuffed, were. Up to that time it was thought best to have no light in the room, but the mob lighted matches and rushed past the guards and shot the negro twice, he being instantly killed. Two or three more random shots were fired and being assured the negro was dead, the mob dispersed.

"Mitchell, while badly wounded, has chances to recover. The statement that Dr. H. J. Beard reported he would not live till morning, was unauthorized and untrue.

"The negro who was killed was from Tennessee, and had only been in the city a few weeks, and did not stand fair with the colored people here, who number 188 only.

"Mitchell is an unmarried man living with his father, who is well respected, and in the employ of L. A. Whitaker. The number of the mob did not exceed twenty-five men, yet there were seventy-five or one hundred people on the streets at the time of the killing. All is quiet and there is no fear of any further trouble. To sum it all up, an undesirable negro citizen violated the law and was unlawfully put to death, through no neglect or carelessness of the city authorities, and which is not condoned by any of the law-abiding citizens of this place."

Blacks Refuse to Touch Body.

Livermore, Ky., April 22.—Declaring that William Potter, the negro who shot Clarence Mitchell, a young white man, Thursday afternoon, was a bad negro, and that he had gotten himself into trouble, the negroes of Livermore refused to have anything to do with the interment of the negro's remains, and the whites of the town buried the body. Undertaker J. P. Hughart offered one negro $5 to assist him in burying the remains, but the negro refused. The blacks would not allow Potter's body to be buried in their cemetery.

Clarence Mitchell, the young white man who was shot by Potter Thursday afternoon, is resting well, and the attending physician states that he is progressing nicely, and will more likely recover.

Since the lynching of the negro, the feeling has subsided, and very little talk is being indulged in, as it is feared the county authorities will hold an investigation. The city of-

Reals are gaining all of the information possible, and, it is claimed, the names of several participating in the lynching of the negro are generally known. It is claimed that Potter died of the gunshot wound, and not the pistol wound, which was inflicted in his body.

PROTEST AGAINST SENTENCE GIVEN MELVIN GRANT

Barretts Ferry, Ky., Apr. 22.—Editors Herald:—A large number of the citizens, and especially the parents, have requested me to write, giving their disapproval of the mild sentence given Melvin Grant for the criminal assault on little Olivia Harrison. They think the parents of the child should have been allowed in the grand jury room and that the jury should have made a full investigation of the case before returning the indictment. He was allowed to plead guilty to an entirely different charge from that committed, without notifying the child's father.

Now, the fact is, he ran the child nearly a mile before he caught her, and then, after choking her nearly to death, committed his fiendish act and fled to the woods. The citizens or posse spared his life, believing that justice would be given him and the horrible deed avenged.

Here is a sweet little girl whose pathway was all sunshine and flowers, which is now blighted, and the fond parents filled with grief which time alone can eradicate.

A. CITIZEN.

Editorial Note.—The Statutes of Kentucky regulate the sentence given offenses like that recounted above. The only charge which could be proven against Grant was attempted rape, which was as far, we understand, as the girl testified he went, and the jury gave him the full limit of the law in this case—two to seven years. No doubt he deserved more, but the exigency of the case nor the limit of the law would not permit it. It was one of those peculiarly aggravated cases which hinge upon the actual consummation of a fact, and in which the law seems to be greatly or somewhat at fault. The insufficiency of the law in a case like this was the only trouble. Only one witness at a time is allowed to testify before the grand jury. The court officials were not blamable.

SHORTAGE IS UNPAID— SHERIFF NOT ARRESTED

Word comes from Utica, Ky., that the shortage of W. A. Sherrill, the former cashier of the Utica Deposit bank at Utica, still remains unpaid, and the officials of that bank know nothing as to when it will be settled. As soon as Sherrill's shortage was discovered, which is said to be over $5,000, the bonding company, surety for Sherrill, was notified, and a representative was sent to check up the books of the bank, and it is understood the examination disclosed about the same amount as that found by T. A. Pedley, who discovered the shortage.

Sherrill left Owensboro and was later located in Webster county, but when the representative of the bonding company went in search of Sherrill, he failed to find him, and he has not been heard from since. The bonding company has made no effort to have him arrested, nor has it paid the shortage.

Mrs. Sherrill and children are still at Utica.

WOMAN WAS DEAD WHEN DIVORCE WAS GRANTED

Hammond, Ind., April 22.—A dead woman was granted a divorce in the Hammond Superior Court this afternoon by Judge V. S. Reiter. Mrs. Margaret Kohnke, of Tolleston, had brought suit for separate maintenance and for alimony for the support of her daughter, her husband Karl having deserted her while the case was on trial. The woman lay ill at her home in Tolleston, and when news came that Judge Reiter had granted her a divorce, it was found that she had died two hours before.

Hawesville Is Concreting.

Hawesville, Ky., April 21.—J. L. Riley, of Owensboro, has arrived here with a carload of cement and four cars of crushed stone and other material and commenced the work of concreting the sidewalks of the town, in accordance with the ordinance of the city council, which proposes to take Hawesville out of the ruts.

BIBLE SCHOOL CONVENTION

And Christian Woman's Board of Missions

OF THE EIGHTEENTH DISTRICT

Held a Profitable and Interesting Two-Days' Session in Hartford.

LIST OF VISITING DELEGATES

The Bible School Convention of the Eighteenth District of the Christian Church of Kentucky closed its annual session Wednesday evening, after a two-days' session. The meeting began Tuesday morning of last week with the session of the Christian Women's Board of Missions. The next day was given over to the Bible School Convention work, and the two days were very enjoyably and profitably spent. There was a large crowd present at each service.

There were twenty-seven visiting delegates, representing Davless, Muhlenberg, Butler, Ohio and McLean counties. Breckenridge, Meade and Hancock counties were not represented. At noon the delegates assembled in front of the Christian Church, when their pictures were made by Mr. E. G. Schroeter.

Wednesday morning State Bible School Evangelist Frazee appointed a committee to select a time and place for holding the next convention and to nominate a president and secretary.

The committee on time and place for next convention and on nominations, as follows: T. Q. Fortney, Robert Frazier, Elizabeth Hunt.

Report of committee: Time, third week in April, 1912. Place, Calhoun, Ky. President, James H. Williams; Secretary, Elizabeth Hunt. Committee on Courtesies, W. J. Hudspeeth, Austin Berry. Report of committee:

Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be, and are hereby extended to the brethren and citizens of Hartford for the hospitality and courtesy shown the members of the convention, to the local press for publishing our program and giving a liberal announcement of the proceedings of the meeting, and to the members of the choir for their excellent music, which was inspiring and helpful.

The devotional exercises Wednesday evening were conducted by Mr. Walter E. Frazee, State School Evangelist. These were followed by a splendid address by Mr. J. W. Hardy, of Nashville, Tenn. The meetings were well attended, especially the last service, and the music by the choir was excellent. The whole cast a most elevating spiritual influence over the community, and brought strangers to our town who seemed pleased to be here. It also added much to the growing prestige of the First Christian Church of Hartford, which has proven a remarkably successful organization.

Visiting Delegates.

Mr. Austin Berry, Mrs. T. F. Birkhead, Mrs. M. T. Henderson, Owensboro; Dr. S. D. Taylor, Miss Dancie Taylor, Miss Jessie Chivan, Miss Effie Alford, Beaver Dam; Miss Saunttee, Miss Wilhoit, Mr. L. N. Varble, Naceo; Mrs. Richard Neal, Miss Lynn, Fordsville; Mr. T. Q. Fortney, Mrs. T. Q. Fortney, Central City; Dr. Raina, Miss Bessie Raley, Mrs. Stewart Rosine; Miss Elizabeth Hunt, Miss Bunnie Wood, Rochester; Miss Amy Longest, Miss Victoria Clumons, Mr. Robert Frazier, Mr. Flemming, Powderly.

At Large.

J. W. Hardy, Nashville, Tenn. H. W. Elliott, Sulphur, Ky. Mrs. S. K. Yancey, Lexington, Ky. W. E. Frazee, Louisville, Ky.

THE DR. AMOS DAMAGE SUIT IS THROWN OUT OF COURT

Paducah, Ky., April 22.—At the conclusion of the evidence in the $25,000 damage suit of C. W. Gordon against Dr. D. A. Amos and other alleged night riders, in the Federal Court to-day, Judge Walter Evans gave peremptory instructions for the defendants. Gordon was whipped in Lyon county two years ago and left the State.

COL. ROOSEVELT IN INTERVIEW

Explains Just How He Stands To-Day

ON SOME PUBLIC QUESTIONS

Is Not a Candidate in Any Sense—A Few Past Events Explained.

AN APPEAL TO "REAL FRIENDS"

The Saturday Evening Post of last week, contains an interview with Theodore Roosevelt in many ways remarkable. It is written by Henry Beach Needham, who has long known the Colonel. It is entitled "Where Roosevelt Stands To-Day." A few of its best parts are given below:

I am not a candidate for the Presidency. And my real friends will do me a cruel injustice if they seek to make me such.

Of the ten hundred and fifteen delegates at the Saratoga convention, perhaps not more than fifteen, certainly less than one hundred, were real supporters of mine.

Most of the delegates did not agree with me on the tariff question, and distrusted me as being too radical in other matters, but they wished to fight for honesty and popular government and against boss rule. They knew that they could win only under my leadership; but they made no secret that they were against me personally. Take the Committee on Resolutions.

In their first draft of the platform there was a mild tribute to me, which welcomed me back to public life as the exponent of honesty, but the committee finally struck this out—a majority wouldn't stand for it. They were determined to keep out of the platform any allusion to me personally. This by itself shows the utter absurdity of thinking that I could influence them on the tariff.

I hadn't it in my power, as they knew, to reward a human being or to punish a human being. Not one man who voted against me at Saratoga had anything to fear from me for so doing; not one man who voted for me at Saratoga had anything to expect from me for his support. I got out of that convention every ounce of progressive action that it was humanly possible to get out of it.

Gov. Hughes and his supporters were entirely responsible for my appearance at Saratoga. I didn't get them into the fight. They were in the fight. All I did was to try to help them out in a fight in which they were right. As long as they were in it I couldn't stay out.

When I got back from Europe I wanted to go home and be quiet; I didn't want to mix in politics. But I was importuned on every hand—by the insurgents of the West and by the progressives of my own State—to help along the movement for honesty in high places in the political and financial world. It seemed to me that it was my duty to try to help them in the fight for popular government, without any regard to what the effect might be to me personally. I didn't see how I could keep out of the fight and retain my self-respect; so I went into it.

I feel that the country is to be congratulated upon the probability of obtaining a closer reciprocity of tariff and trade relations with Canada.

In my judgment the Constitution should be amended so as to provide for the direct election of United States Senators by the people. Those opposing such an amendment are merely expressing the same fear that moved the framers of the Constitution to commit the election of President to the Electoral College.

Comparatively short experience convinced the Nation that the President should be voted for directly by the Electoral College has been retained, the electors have no function except to be direct election of delegates to national conventions.

It should be thought necessary, even this superfluous machinery could with advantage be abolished.

I believe, also, that there should be direct election of delegates to national convention.

Even Gov. Baldwin, of Connecticut—with whom, you remember, I had a passage-at-arms in the campaign—has recommended to the Legislature a "careful consideration" of direct primaries. Each State must determine for itself, by testing the scheme in practice, whether all elective officers are to be nominated directly by the people or by certain stipulated officers.

Asked about the Initiative, referendum and recall, Col. Roosevelt said: More antagonism is excited by these three proposals, and especially by the recall, than by any of the other planks in the (National Progressive Republican) league reform. With these devices it is particularly a case of a means to an end.

Mr. Needham quotes Col. Roosevelt's fellow Rough Rider, John C. Greenway, as saying:

"Col. Roosevelt's greatest ambition is to be shot on the field of battle."

MEETS BROTHERS HE HAD NEVER SEEN BEFORE

Glasgow, Ky., April 22.—An affectionate meeting between aged brothers who had never met before took place here yesterday. D. W. Ward, aged fifty-six years, of Knoxville, Iowa, had two brothers, B. C. Ward, of Elbow Springs, this county, and W. I. Ward, of Randolph, Metcalfe county, whom he had never seen. A few days since he wrote his brothers he was coming to visit them, and when he stepped from the train, each recognized the other. D. W. Ward was born in Iowa and when quite a small boy secured a good position in Knoxville, Iowa. About this time his parents decided to come to Kentucky to seek their fortune, but the boy remained at his work, where he was steadily promoted and soon had business interests of his own. The other brothers were born and reared here, and though having corresponded with their brothers, they had never met before.

INDICTED FOR ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP NEIGHBOR

Glasgow, Ky., April 22.—The examining trial of J. F. McFeeley resulted in his being held to await the action of the grand jury under a $500 bond, which he executed.

McFeeley is charged with having constructed an infernal machine by stuffing a wagon thimble with dynamite and attempting to blow up Deputy Sheriff Trigg Ennis two years ago.

It is alleged that McFeeley placed the infernal machine near Ennis' barn and lured Ennis near it by banging a lot of paper on bushes. When Ennis went to investigate the paper he heard a sharp report and saw a man running through the woods, whom he recognized as McFeeley.

McFeeley denies the charge, and claims that he will be able to establish an alibi. Trouble of several years standing existed between the two men.

IDENTITY OF WITNESS IN THOMPSON CASE

Madisonville, Ky., April 23.—It has been learned that the white man who appeared before the grand jury at Dixon and testified that he was an eyewitness to the Thompson tragedy is Henry Brown, a miner, 27 years of age. He has been employed in the Buckman mines for some time and quit work there several weeks ago. He moved to Providence two years ago and little is known of him. The attorneys for the defense do not take Brown's story at all seriously, and say that his evidence will have little to do with the outcome of the trial.

WOMAN DIES AFTER 150- POUND TUMOR IS REMOVED

Columbus, Ind., April 22.—Miss Hattie Reed, aged forty years, who was blind from her early youth, died on the operating table here today. In the operation an abdominal tumor was removed which weighed 150 pounds and was the largest ever before seen, even by the oldest surgeons here. When the tumor was removed the body weighed but seventy pounds.

W. G. S. Anderson, aged 81 years, one of Muhlenberg's oldest citizens, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. C. Eaves, at Greenville, Tuesday of last week.

MEXICAN REVOLT PROBABLY ENDED

Both Sides Have Agreed
To an Armistice.

EARLY RESIGNATION OF DIAZ

Not Insisted Upon, But Fair Elections Are Part of Demands.

INDICATIONS POINT TO PEACE

El Paso, Tex., April 22.—Members of the peace commission tonight declared that the revolution in Mexico is as good as ended. Gen. Madero agreed to an armistice, providing the Government would rest all military operations, and a favorable reply from the City of Mexico is regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Gen. Navarro today, in advance of the official orders, released the three American prisoners, Blass, Converse and Brown, from the Juarez jail, where they have been confined for eight weeks for participating in the revolution.

The peace commission met with Gen. Madero in a small adobe house, just across the river from the smelter, and the latter repeated to them his statement earlier given to the American Press, that he does not insist upon the resignation of President Diaz as essential to negotiations for peace. Thus the keynote of the arch of opposition to end the revolution dropped from its place.

Gen. Madero said all he will insist upon in addition to the reforms already instituted is that the people of Mexico shall have a "square deal," as provided in the Constitution. Members of the commission returned to El Paso highly elated. The details of their interview with the rebel commander were not given out, but it is known that many facts hitherto unknown to Gen. Madero were poured into his attentive ears. He has, it is said, been almost in complete ignorance of what was going on in the outside world for more than a month. Owing to the stoppage of railroad trains, few newspapers reached his camp. The elder Madero, for instance, following on the heels of his son through Chihuahua, found in the city of Madera, where there are many Americans and in railroad camps along the way, no paper less than a month old. For the first time the General learned details of the conference participated in at Washington and New York by his father, Minister Limantour, and the then Mexican Ambassador, Senor de La Barra.

While every indication points to peace to-night there is, of course, room for some unforeseen slip to occur. There is no obstacle in sight, however. Tomorrow, it is expected, a modus operandi will be discussed and possibly adopted. It is also probable that the City of Mexico and Gen. Madero will negotiate through the mission. One member of it, Rafael Hernandez, in an unofficial way represents the Government. Although he is a nephew of Francisco Madero, Sr., Ernesto Madero, brother of I. Francisco, is not a revolutionist and is really the guiding spirit of the present negotiations.

Armistice For Five Days.

El Paso, Tex., April 23.—An armistice of five days, beginning at noon today and affecting the district between Juarez and Chihuahua and west of the latter city, was made effective to-day in an exchange of identical letters signed by Gen. Francisco I. Madero, for the rebels, and Gen. Juan Navarro, for the Government.

The truce provides that there shall be no movement of troops of either side during the next five days, and that provisions and medicines may be brought to either camp from the American side without payment of duty.

For Sale,
A carload of good Northern White Oats, at 50c per bushel.

W. E. ELLIS,
The Produce Man.

1414

Subscribe for The Hartford Herald.

HIS LOVED ONES SLAIN BY FATHER

Who Saw Want Facing Family of Seven.

DREADED COMING BLINDNESS

Boy Escaped Carnage—Mother
Shot Down and Tots Slaughtered.

OHIO PLUMBER'S INSANE ACT

Youngstown, Ohio, April 20.—Six lives were the toll of the night's work which Grant G. Rickert, a plumber, who feared he was going blind, performed with ax and hatchet when he slaughtered his wife Cecelia, aged 40, whom he shot, and his children, Charlotte, aged 15; Helen, aged 13; Pearl, aged 10, and Raymond, aged 8, and lastly, himself.

Edwin C. Rickert, aged 17, is living because he fought his way to the top floor, dead or dying, after he had been struck on the back of the head with the bloody hatchet. He escaped to a neighbor's and there gave the alarm, but too late to save his mother and his little brothers and sisters, whom the police found scattered from the ground floor to the top floor, dead or dying.

Then the insane man shot himself and fell dying, the revolver still in his grasp, the bloody hatchet scarcely beyond his finger tips.

Rickert started with the babe beside the mother and fought against her to accomplish his death, and then killed the mother herself.

Raymond, the baby, was hit twice on the side of the head with the hatchet, and died at the City Hospital this morning, his skull frightfully crushed.

The mother, shot in the left side of the head just above the ear, was killed instantly.

The maniac then proceeded to the second story, where the other children slept. He encountered Edwin, the seventeen-year-old boy, who received three scalp wounds from the hatchet and threw up his hands to ward off others, throwing his father downstairs and succeeding in escaping to a neighbors, but in a frightful condition.

Charlotte and Helen, aged 15 and 13, respectively, lay in bed at the top of the stairs. The former was struck on the left temple with the hatchet and a bullet sent through her head. The latter died from a blow over the left ear from the hatchet.

Pearl, aged 10, was in her bed by herself. A hatchet blow back of the head and a bullet, which penetrated her head through her left cheek, ended her life. She lived until this morning, as did Raymond.

The father was always considered "queer" during the 21 years he had lived here. He was an able journeyman plumber, but could not keep his jobs. He went into business for himself, but was not successful.

His wife, slaving for the family, baked bread for the neighbors in order to keep herself and the children and send them to school. Three were in the high school.

Rickert wrote a note giving the fear of approaching blindness and financial worries as the cause for the deed. Another letter he left on the kitchen table was addressed to the coroner. The first was to his brother-in-law, A. M. Appel, and contained an insurance policy for $2,000, $15 in cash and some few notations. Here is the letter he wrote to the coroner:

"Mr. Coroner: I have a dozen good reasons for doing such a terrible deed. To sum up, I dread the future for my wife and children. For five years I have had ulcerated eyes and I dread going blind. My eldest son has trouble with his ears. My wife has had dizzy spells and sometimes becomes unconscious. Our oldest daughter has coughed up some hard, offensive matter from her throat. We have never been able to pay anything on our home or to finish it.

"P. S.—I could write a year and still give more trouble. I know my wife is as eager to lay down her burden, and I must do this before I go insane, if I am not already so. Although I have never used intoxicating drinks, I can see that the drinks have been the curse of my entire life. When will it be stopped?"

"Our baby cries for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Rasaca, Ga. "It is the best cough remedy on the market for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by all dealers.

JOHN WANAMAKER, FIFTY YEARS A MERCHANT.

THE next recipient of the loving cup tribute from friends will be John Wanamaker, who is to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his advent as a merchant. Mr. Wanamaker may be called the A. T. Stewart of the present day. In addition to his Philadelphia emporium of everything he now owns the old A. T. Stewart store in New York. But he is much more than a mere buyer and seller of goods. During the Harrison administration he served efficiently as postmaster general. Prior to that he declined nominations to congress and to the mayoralty of his native city, Philadelphia. In 1858 he founded the Bethany Presbyterian Sunday school, now probably the largest in the United States, and he has been superintendent ever since—more than fifty-two years. Mr. Wanamaker began his business career at fourteen as errand boy in a Philadelphia bookstore.

MASKED MEN ACT AS AMATEUR SURGEONS

Mutilate Indiana Farmer Acquitted of Grave Crime Against Own Daughter.

North Vernon, Ind., April 20.—A mob of twenty-five men quietly went to the home of Ephraim Tyler, of Campbell township, nine miles southeast of this city, early this morning and calling Tyler to the door, seized him and carried him in his night clothes out into the yard. There he was tied and held fast while with a sharp penknife he was badly mistreated.

Afterward he was carried into the house and the men disappeared as quietly as they came. Scarcely a word was spoken and all were carefully disguised.

Tyler, who is forty-five years of age, was recently acquitted of a serious charge preferred by his daughter, who told her story before the grand jury. She is the mother of two children, and many believe that she told the truth before the grand jury.

Feeling ran high after the acquittal of Tyler and there was talk of mob violence for several days. After the mistreatment of the man, he was sent into the house and later a member of the mob sent a physician to look after him. He has a wife and several grown sons and daughters.

We guarantee Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve to cure common sore eyes in 24 to 36 hours. This seems strange, but it is backed by our guarantee. You run no risk and it only costs 25c.

Woman's Home Companion for May, 1911.

The May Woman's Home Companion is the big Spring Story Number. A special point has been made of the fiction, without sacrificing the other features that help to make every number of this magazine a complete and well-rounded whole.

For All Skin Diseases. Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve is the best. It is a creamy snow white ointment pleasant to use and every box is guaranteed. Price 25c. At all dealers.

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE WITH OUNCE LAUDANUM

David Knott, of Haynesville, the Victim—It Was His Second Attempt.

As the result of having taken about an ounce of laudanum with suicidal intent, David Knott, a highly respected citizen of Haynesville, Ohio county, died Wednesday night about 9 o'clock, at the home of his son, Lefe Knott.

Mr. Knott was about 65 years of age, and his mind had been unbalanced for some time. He has been living in the Haynesville neighborhood for about 20 years, having moved there from Indiana.

This is the second time that Knott attempted to take his life. About one month ago he procured a bottle of laudanum at Whitesville and drank most of the contents, but fortunately his condition was discovered in time to save his life. He made another effort to secure laudanum at Fordsville, but in this he was unsuccessful. About ten days ago Mr. Knott was in Owensboro, and it is believed that while there he purchased the laudanum that ended his life.

Mr. Knott took the laudanum on Tuesday night, and he lay in a stupor all day Wednesday. All efforts to arouse him were unavailing, and he died Wednesday night. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Emma McDaniel, of Arkansas, and one son, Mr. Lefe Knott, of Haynesville. The funeral took place at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the residence, interment being in the Haynes burying ground.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.

The Worst. Willie—"What's the most ferocious animal in the circus, papa?" Pa—"The callopo, my son." "Woman's Home Companion" for May.

A HOT DISH SET FOR JUDGE O'REAR

By Major A. T. Wood, Pension Agent.

HE DECLARES FOR E. T. FRANKS

For Governor—Says Question is One of "Anarchy or Law and Order."

HE IS NOT A PROHIBITIONIST

Maj. A. T. Wood, Pension agent for the Louisville district, in a statement issued recently, takes a shot at Judge E. C. O'Rear, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, and declares himself a supporter of the candidacy of E. T. Franks.

"He did not look over the back fence and say that you could not suppress lawlessness with bayonets," he says, telling of Mr. Franks' attitude during that period of Kentucky's history when the so-called night riders were destroying property and committing murder, and referring to a speech said to have been delivered by Judge O'Rear in an effort to down lawlessness.

Further along, he says: "Above all and beyond all, we ought to nominate a man who will not allow night riders, murderers and scoundrels to intimidate whole communities and take the laws in their own hands."

Maj. Wood, in opening his statement, calls attention to the fact that he has participated in every election in Kentucky, both State and National, since 1860, and voted the Republican ticket from Lincoln to Taft.

In that part of his statement referring to night riders, he says:

"When the crusade began in Kentucky by certain lawless bands that were committing murders, destroying property, burning barns, tearing up tobacco beds and driving men from the State, and when Governor Willson ordered troops to the counties where these lawless gangs were operating, he (Franks) did not look over the back fence and say that you could not suppress lawlessness with bayonets, but went into these counties, taking his life almost in his hands, and denounced this lawlessness and expressed himself in favor of using all means possible that a Governor could command to put down this lawlessness and bring about peace and order.

"If there has been anything that the Republican party has been in favor of, it has been for the enforcement of the law, and I would rather see the party beaten for Governor and for all other offices than to see any man elected that was not in favor of using all means at his command, even the bayonet, to suppress these lawless gangs."

Maj. Wood discusses Mr. Franks' attitude on a number of State and national issues. On the liquor question he says:

"I know he is in favor of local option and the county unit law was expressed in our platform at the last election.

"He is not a Prohibitionist and does not believe you can pass any law to control men's appetites. He believes in every community and county being free to regulate the sale of whiskey in its own way."

In closing, Maj. Wood says:

"Mr. Franks has been a strong supporter of President Taft. He has been a strong supporter of Gov. Willson's administration; and especially has he supported and endorsed Gov. Willson's acts in trying to put down lawlessness in Kentucky. No man ought to be elected Governor who is not in favor of endorsing the action of the Governor.

"It is a question of anarchy, or law and order."

JUST ONE WORD that word is Tutt's, It refers to Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills and MEANS HEALTH. Are you constipated? Troubled with indigestion? Sick headache? Vertigo? Biliousness? Ischemia? ANY of these symptoms and many others indicate inaction of the LIVER. You Need Tutt's Pills Take No Substitute.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 27 N. MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

GILLESPIE BROTHERS.

W. H. & J. F. GILLESPIE,
PROPRIETORS.

BLACKSMITHING.

And Repair Work

Horseshoeing
A Specialty

HARTFORD,
Kentucky.

HAVE YOUR SUITS CLEANED and PRESSED.

Repairing and dyeing neatly done.

Ladies' work given special attention.

Hats cleaned and repaired.

Work called for and delivered.

Club rate $1.00 per month.

Hartford Pressing Club,

Y. M. C. A. Bldg.,
Hartford, Kentucky.

SOLD BY
CARSON
&
CO.
LIBERTY SPECIAL HATS
FOR MEN. HARTFORD

PATENTS

We promptly obtain U. S. and Foreign patents on inventions. For free book,
How to Secure Patents and Trade-Marks write to CASNOW & CO.

OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

DR. BELL'S ANTI-PAIN
For Internal and External Pains.

HARDWICK, OWENSBORO
Fine Watch and Jewelry Repairing.

Expert and Artistic Monogram and Plain Engraving.

Eyes Tested and Lenses Ground in our Shops.

We have a complete Lens-Grinding Plant and two Graduate Opticians and can give perfect results.

Don't buy Glasses from spectacle peddlers who travel from city to city.

We have Skilled Workmen and the very Finest and Best Machinery and Stock and are in a position to render good service.

We pay cash for old Gold and Silver.

SUTHERLAND'S EAGLE EYE SALVE
Good for Nothing but the Eyes

Headquarters for Building Supplies.

If you need building material, call on us. We have Rough and Dressed Lumber, Doors, Sash, Moldings, Flooring, Ceiling, Finish, Siding, Lathes, Shingles, Columns, Rubber Paper and Metal Roofing, Ridgeroll Cresting and Guttering, House and Roof Paints, Lime, Paten Plaster, Cement, Common and Fire Brick, Screen Doors and Wire.

Bean Bros.,
West End Union St.
Hartford, - Ky.

Professional Cards.

J. M. PORTER,
Attorney at Law,
BEAVER DAM, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties. Special attention given to all business entrusted to his care.

FRANK L. FELIX,
Attorney at Law,
HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals Criminal practice and Collections a specialty. Office in the Herald building

C. M. BARNETT. C. B. SMITH.
BARNETT & SMITH,
Attorneys at Law,
HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice his profession in all the Court of Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals. Collections a specialty.

NEGRO MOBBED AT LIVERMORE

By Half a Hundred Enraged Citizens.

A BLOODY DRAMA WAS STAGED

With Murderous Black as Central Figure—Riddled With Bullets.

NEGRO HAD SHOT WHITE MAN

Calhoun, Ky., April 20.—The little opera house at Livermore, eight miles from here, never witnessed such a melodrama as was staged there at 8:30 o'clock to-night when Will Potter, a negro, was dragged before the footlights and his body riddled with bullets from the guns of an audience of half a hundred determined avengers. Of about 200 shots fired, nearly half entered the body of the black man, and the remainder tore to shreds the woodland scenery, arranged for the presentation of a more mild drama.

While the mob was doing its work in the playhouse, Frank Mitchell, 22 years old, lay at the home of his father with his life blood ebbing from a ragged hole in his chest, where a bullet from the negro's gun had entered, piercing one of his lungs. At a late hour, physicians held out no hope for the recovery of the young white man.

The drama that had such a bloody ending started with an argument in a poolroom between young Mitchell, who is the son of William Mitchell, a liverman and prominent citizen of the little town, and the negro Potter. Exactly what the men quarreled about has not been definitely established, but it is said that Potter drew a gun and threatened to kill Mitchell if he did not immediately leave the poolroom. Mitchell is said to have backed out of the place, and when he reached the street, to have addressed some remark to the black. He then hurried up the street.

The white man had gotten only a short distance from the poolroom when Potter ran up the street after him, and without warnings, shot him. As Mitchell fell to the street, Potter turned and ran. He was captured within a few minutes by City Marshal V. P. Stabler, and taken to the lockup.

When news of the shooting spread through the town the citizens became infuriated and a mob was organized, with the avowed intention of lynching the negro.

Hearing of the intended assault on the lockup, which is a flimsy structure, the Marshal hastily swore in a half dozen deputies and took his trembling prisoner to the opera house. All the doors were bolted and the prisoner was hidden in the basement beneath the stage. Then the Marshal began preparations to receive the mob, having first telephoned to Sheriff T. E. Beeler at Calhoun to come immediately to his assistance with a posse. Before he could fortify his stronghold, however, the mob appeared and demanded the surrender of the negro. Failing to get a ready answer from the little force in the opera house, the fifty men in the streets made a combined assault on the front doors, and within a few minutes had overpowered the Marshal and his deputies.

Scott's Emulsion

is the original—has been the standard for thirty-five years.

There are thousands of so-called "just as good" Emulsions, but they are not—they are simply imitations which are never as good as the original. They are like thin milk—SCOTT'S is thick like a heavy cream.

If you want it thin, do it yourself—with water—but don't buy it thin.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS

Send 10c. name of paper and this ad. for our beautiful Savings Book and Child's Sketch-Book. Each book contains a Good Luck Penny.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York

tles. Search was then made for the negro, who was finally dragged from underneath the stage, shivering with terror.

After a short consultation, the black man was dragged before the footlights and tied. His captors then ranted themselves in the orchestra pit and at a given signal began to shoot. For a minute or more the auditorium reverberated with the roar of the pistols and rifles, and then all was still. Leaving the negro where he lay, a limp and bloody bundle, the mob filed out into the streets and in a few minutes had dispersed.

When Sheriff Beeler arrived from Calhoun, having made the journey in a fast motorboat, there was nothing for him to do but take charge of the body that still lay in a pool of blood on the stage, the glare of the footlights revealing in its entirety the deadly work of the mob.

IS A STURDY MAN OF THE HIGHEST INTEGRITY

Something About Hon. William Addams, Democratic Candidate for Governor.

The Bowling Green Messenger says:

In another place in to-day's paper will be found the platform of principles laid down by Hon. William Addams, a candidate before the Democratic primary election for the office of Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The platform rings clear, and covers a number of points that will be discussed when the candidates get out on the stump and ask for the support of the people.

The editor of the Messenger has enjoyed the personal acquaintance of Mr. Addams for twenty years. He has been a controlling factor in the Democratic politics of the Ninth District for a long time and has always used his power for the good of the party of his choice. He is a man around fifty years old, who has built himself up by his own exertions. Born on a farm and receiving the rudiments of an education by his own efforts, he forged ahead until he owned his own farm and several others around him that were for sale. He invested in farm and Cynthiana city property, and he can now be counted a rich man, as riches go in Kentucky.

He took his first fling in politics when the lamented Woodford Longmoo, who married his cousin, became a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. Captain Longmoo was a boy soldier in the Confederate army and lost a leg in the fight around Cynthiana. He was one of the few men who ever lived after an operation of surgery that necessitated the amputation of the leg at the hip joint. Captain Longmoo won the race, but did not live long enough to enjoy his triumph.

Getting a taste of politics by his efforts to help his cousin-in-law out, Mr. Addams has since kept in the game, and you always knew you had to reckon with Will Addams if you wanted anything in the Ninth District. He has never held office except that he has been State Central Committeeman from his district for the past ten or twelve years.

His personal honor and integrity will stand the test of the searchlight of publicity, and if elected Governor, he will be a Governor that we won't be ashamed of.

Dangerous.

"Won't you try a piece of my wife's angel cake?"
"Will it make a nangel of me?"
"That will depend on the kind of a lifo you have led."

EVE BEFORE THE FALL— HAD A DELIGHTFUL TIME

Eve never wore shoes. She never had a dress that buttoned up the back. She did not bother with bats. She never discharged the cook. She got eggs for nothing and the hens laid every day. When she wanted a drink she sweetened it with honey at hand. She never used a brush or a hair restorer. Her husband never shaved. She had no bath tub, but used the Ashley before breakfast and the Cooper before retiring. She rode dicarurus-back to the Isle of Palma whenever she desired. She used no bathing suit. Altogether, she had as delightful a time in Charleston as any of the rest of us. —[Charleston News and Courier.

No Backache or Kidney Pain.

If you have pains in the back, urinary, bladder or kidney trouble, dizziness and lack of energy, try Mother Gray's Aromatic-Leaf, the pleasant herb remedy. As a System regulator it has on equal. At Druggists, or by mail, 50c. Ask to-day. Sample Free. Address The Mother Gray Co., Le Roy, N. Y.

WHERE BLACK RULES WHITE

In Haiti, the Big West Indian Island.

ETERNAL REVOLUTIONS THERE

A Country Where No White Person is Allowed to Own Land.

PEERAGE HAS BEEN ABOLISHED

Haiti, that big West Indian island, or half-island, is once again in the throes of a "terrible" revolution.

It is probably the most turbulent country in the world. Out of its last 27 Presidents, 23 had either to flee for their lives or were assassinated or killed in battle.

It used to be a French possession, and a mangled French is still spoken there; but for the last century or so it has been an independent black republic. The Haitians believe themselves to be the most civilized nation on earth, but it is a comic opera kind of civilization. The cities, for instance, are fitted up for electric lights, but the electricity does not work, and nobody tries to make it. Haiti is so shiftless that it has no foreign trade to speak of, so there are very few whites on the island. The few who do live there keep very quiet, for Haiti despises lecturing there.

No white person is allowed to own land. This law alone is sufficient to prevent a large white population collection there.

Haiti used to be known as the land of the Dukes with the absurd names. Some 60 years ago it started a peerage, and every peer chose the name whose sound struck his fancy. One black nobleman was the Duke of Marmalade, another the Duke of Lemonade. There was also a Marquis of Ginger Pop.

But the peerage has been abolished. Nowadays Haiti is chiefly known as the land of Generals. The latest statistics—which, Haiti feebly, are 20 years old—show an army consisting of 6,500 privates, 7,000 regular officers and 6,500 Generals. Those Generals who have no horses, ride on mules, and the army is clad in the cast-off uniforms of half the regiments of Europe. Some of the men parade without boots, some with cigarettes in their mouths, some with long sticks of sugar cane, some have rusty swords; the rest walking sticks.

There are many civilian Generals as well. Country Squires are usually Generals. As every respectable Haitian has a passion for frock coats and silk hats, perspiring Generals are often to be seen working in the fields, frock-coated under a burning tropical sun.

Haiti has a navy composed of six third-class cruisers, but even Haiti does not take that navy very seriously. When foreign vessels put into Haitian ports they are plagued by Haitian tars trying to sell for a few pennies, brasswork and engine room fittings.

Haiti is steadily slipping back into barbarism. Some years ago the municipality of Port de Paix showed sufficient enterprise to construct waterworks. The town was well piped and hydrants were placed at short intervals all along the streets. Decorative fountains and drinking troughs were put at every corner. The natives were delighted. For a week they gave themselves up to feasts, balls and processions to celebrate the great event. But at the end of the week they went and tore up the whole system. Now they tie horses to the hydrants and pick their way in the main streets among fragments of pipes, and are happy. It would seem they haven't much use for fresh water.

There is a grim side to Haiti's relapse into savagery. Voodooism is getting a greater hold than ever it had. Voodooism is simply a sacred form of cannibalism, practiced by high and low. At intervals these frock-coated Generals retire to the depths of the jungle and worship the snake god, sacrificing and eating children in its honor. All respectable inhabitants of Haiti botly deny that this is so, but travelers have seen. At least two of Haiti's recent Presidents were known voodoo worshippers.

Haiti is a beautiful land. It has a glorious climate, some of the loveliest mountain and forest scenery in the world and the most fertile of soils. The Haitian is a lazy, good-humored child. But somehow there is an uncanny atmosphere about the island, and most of the few travelers who have found their way have confessed to heaving a sigh of relief on seeing the coast line fade on the horizon.

The Truth.

Father and son were walking the streets and passed a large park in which were many statues. One of them—the largest of all—was of a woman.

"Father, what is that?" asked the son, pointing to this particular one, which was inscribed "Woman."

"That is not a statue, my son," answered the father. "It is but a figure of speech."

An Afterthought.

She used to be a pensive maid. But now, upon my life, Since we are married, I'm afraid She's an ex-pensive wife. —[Woman's Home Companion for May.

THE REAL REASON WHY MEXICANS HATE US

Many Americans Going There Are of the "Undesirable Citizen" Class.

According to Rt. Rev. Henry D. Aves, Episcopal Bishop to Mexico, one of the principal reasons why "the Gringo" is cordially detested by the Mexicans is because not one of the great combinations of American capital which have exploited the land of Diaz and the guitar has placed in that country an institution for the improvement of the illiterate multitude of peons.

Bishop Aves might have gone further in his analysis and added that another, and probably far more potent reason, is the supercilious attitude which too many Americans have assumed in Mexico. He points out that 11,000,000 of Mexico's 15,000,000 people are poor, that they have seen vast concessions granted by their Government to their "rich, proud brother of the North," and that they have inwardly revolted at what seems to them rank injustice. They have seen Americans grow rich at Mexico's cost while they have remained at the bottom of the social scheme, "working for a pittance and living in ignorance and discomfort."

For years it has been a standing joke among Americans living in Mexico to ask of newly arrived citizens from the States, "When are you going back?" The point is that numbers of Americans who have gone to Mexico dare not return home because of troubles left behind. "Better free in Mexico than in jail in the States," has been their argument.

These Americans who had transgressed laws in their own country to get rich quickly, have not hesitated to lord it over the Mexicans with an air of superiority, which if practiced by Mexicans in the United States would necessitate interference by the police. There are many sides to the question why the Mexicans hate us, but to a large degree we have the conduct of our own people to blame. As Dr. Aves concludes, the cry "Mexico for the Mexicans! Down with Gringos!" is not as unnatural as those who do not know conditions at close range might at first suppose. —[Philadelphia Bulletin.

Saved His Mother's Life.

"Four doctors had given me up," writes Mrs. Laura Gaines, of Avoca, La., "and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so, and they have done me a world of good. I will always praise them." Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. Use them and gain new health, strength and vigor. They're guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Only 50c at James H. Williams.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

TUBERCULOSIS CAUSES
MANY CHURCH DEATHS

From reports just received at the National Association, from over 725 churches, with a membership of over 312,000 communicants of twenty denominations, and from 208 cities and towns in twelve States in various parts of the country, out of nearly 7,000 deaths in 1910, over 700 or 10.4 per cent. were caused by tuberculosis. This means 2.24 deaths for every thousand members or communicants.

A Sermon or Lecture Outline on Tuberculosis was sent by the State Association to over 2,000 ministers in Kentucky and it is believed that practically 250,000 communicants in our State will discuss the Great

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English; or, Medicine Simplified, 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations, newly revised up-to-date Edition, paper-bound, sent for 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

KENTUCKY Light and Power Company

(INCORPORATED)

E. G. BARRASS, MGR.,
Hartford, Ky.

Will wire your house at cost. Electric Lights are clean, healthy and safe. No home or business house should be without them when within reach.

White Plague on, or some day of the week preceding or following April 30th, which has been designated as National "Tuberculosis Day." All the prominent clergymen any many statesmen have given the movement their official endorsement. Anyone desiring further information about the Plague in Kentucky can get it by addressing the Secretary of the Kentucky Association, Eugene Kerner, at 215 E. Walnut street, Louisville, Ky.

Tell Your Neighbors

When in need of a cough medicine to use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It is the best. Look for the bell on the bottle.

A Gentle Method.

Little Edward had been visiting his uncle's ranch, where they were very much bothered by rats. When he came back, he started to school, where he received the information which he gave his grandmother one day. He said:

"Grandma, do you know how to get rid of rats?"

"No, Edward. How?"

"Why, a soft answer turneth away rats." —[Woman's Home Companion for May.

Lame shoulder is nearly always due to rheumatism of the muscles, and quickly yields to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

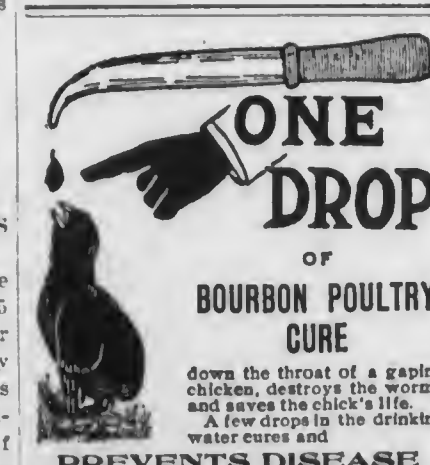

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

In For It

First Small Boy—"We'd better be good."

Second Small Boy—"Why?"

First Small Boy—"I heard doctor tell mother to take plenty of exercise." —[Woman's Home Companion for May.

ONE DROP

OF

BOURBON POULTRY CURE

down the throat of a gaping chicken, destroys the worms and saves the chick's life. A few drops in the drinking water cures and

PREVENTS DISEASE
For the treatment of White Diarrhoea in chicks and Blackhead and other diseases in turkeys

BOURBON POULTRY CURE HAS NO EQUAL

One 50c bottle makes 12 gallons of medicine. Sold by Z. Wilbur Mitchell, Beaver Dam, Ky.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey
For Coughs and Colds.

HAVE A ROUGH RIVER TELEPHONE

—PLACED IN YOUR RESIDENCE OR PLACE OF BUSINESS, AND PUT YOURSELF IN DIRECT CONTACT WITH THE

Long Distance Lines

—TO ALL STATES.

FOR THE COMPANY'S SPECIAL CONTRACT TO THE FARMERS, CALL ON OR ADDRESS

J. W. O'BANON.

Local Manager,
Hartford, Ky.

W. C. SEXTON.

Local Manager,
Beaver Dam, Ky.

Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve
Good for all Skin Diseases.

Subscribe for The Herald; $1.00 a y'r

The Hartford Herald

HEBER MATTHEWS, FRANK L. FELIX,
EDITORS.
FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r.

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

WEDNESDAY.....APRIL 26

NOTICE, DEMOCRATS!
Democratic State Primary Election, Saturday, July 1.

FOR SALE.

A good Country Campbell Cylinder Press. Has been displaced by a large two-revolution Cottrell. Will sell cheap. For further particulars address The Herald.

At the hour of going to press, the opposing armies in Mexico were apparently waiting for the moving picture artists to get their apparatus in proper position.

We rely on friends of The Herald to help us make The Herald reliable in its news every week. Any favors shown us along this line will be gratefully appreciated.

Quite a number of good people are addicted to a "measly" habit in Ohio county just at present. The worst feature of this "habit" seems to be that it is "catching."

On the seventh page of The Herald to-day will be found the full and official 1910 census returns for Kentucky towns and cities. The article is well worth preserving for reference.

A news item says "Senator Bradley is in a quandary over the naming of a Republican candidate for Governor." Awaiting his decision, many of the Republican cohorts are also apparently in a quandary.

The best asset Kentucky Democrats will have during the coming campaign is Gov. Willson. At present he is doing good service as valued opposition to the candidacy of a prominent Republican for Governor.

Editor Louis Landram says in the Danville Messenger that "The skirt divided against itself can not stand. Either it must become all trousers or revert to its unbifurcated status." But Louis is too wise to say which he would prefer in feminine wear.

When matters have come to such a pass that a Republican President has to call a lower Democratic House together to pass measures to his liking, things political seem to have taken on a very unique situation. The fabled lamb and lion lying down together is apparently exemplified by a whole menagerie.

It is just thirteen years ago since Congress passed those resolutions calling for intervention between Spain and Cuba. And it has been nearly that long that the battleship Maine has lain in Cuban waters, the mystery of her destruction, along with the many brave souls that went with her, about as deep as ever.

There can be little doubt that the corporate and liquor influences of Kentucky are striving mightily to get control of both the Republican and Democratic parties of the State. It is a sinister influence, as adroit as it is powerful, and capable of the most shrewd political tricks. One of its favorite schemes is to have men in its employ when they really don't know it.

The event of this week in society circles in Owensboro will be the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Woodson and Mr. Hamilton Alexander, which will take place at 9 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urey Woodson, on South Frederica street. In behalf of our old friend Urey—feels a little older now, maybe—we extend congratulations in advance.

After having pardoned the eleven negroes who were convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for the brutal assassination of a Louisville traveling man who was on his way in Webster county to witness a rumored lynching, three years ago, Gov. Willson now comes out with a reward for members of the mob, to which the traveling man did not belong. Such belated tactics are a travesty upon justice. But they well characterize the actions of our present blundering Governor.

The people have discovered that the Senate of the United States (with its members elected as they have been in the past) is the very citadel of the "interests," and that it is almost impossible to get any measure of substantial relief by way of legislation until the Senate has been made directly responsible to the people. The Democratic party has long favored giving the people the direct election of their Senators, but a proposed amendment of the Federal Constitution to that effect was defeated by a Republican Senate at the last session of Congress. The present House of Representatives (in extra session since April 4, 1911), by the unanimous vote of its Democratic members, has already passed a Constitutional Amendment to that effect and the same will be submitted to the States for their ratification, unless it is again defeated by the Republican Senate.

Mr. H. A. Sommers, editor and publisher of the Elizabethtown News, has lately been frequently spoken of as a probable candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor. If Mr. Sommers should decide to enter the race, he will no doubt have at his command the united support of the Kentucky boys of the press. He is one of the most prominent and worthy men of the State and is abundantly able to fill any office within the gift of the people of the State whose interests he has served so faithfully and well.

A BELATED REWARD OFFERED FOR LYNCHERS

Frankfort, Ky., April 22.—An effort to discover the identity of the members of the mob which lynched Jacob McDowell, a negro, in Webster county several years ago, Governor Willson yesterday offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of each member of the mob.

The lynching of McDowell followed the killing of a Louisville traveling man in Webster county, for which crime 11 negroes were convicted. These negroes were pardoned by the Governor. McDowell shot a man at Providence and was placed in jail at Dixon. There was talk of a mob and McDowell was removed to Henderson to avoid trouble. A mob formed, it is stated, and started for Dixon. The two traveling men went ahead of the mob and were fired on by the negroes, one white man being killed. Later McDowell was taken back to Dixon and the night he was put in jail, a mob took him out and hanged him.

SUNKEN GRAVEL DIGGER COVERED BY INSURANCE

The Owensboro Inquirer says: Insurance adjusters from Louisville were in Owensboro Saturday to adjust the loss to the Kentucky Sand and Gravel company, occasioned by the sinking of the gravel digger during the high wind on Wednesday afternoon, which was moored at the foot of Locust street. The waves rolled over the edge of the boat, filling the hull and sinking it. The digger is said to have cost about $10,000, and was equipped with first-class machinery. A force of men are at work trying to raise the sunken boat.

Mr. B. D. Ringo, who is connected with the Kentucky Sand and Gravel company, cannot tell what the damage will amount to, but says that the insurance will be satisfactorily adjusted.

OUR ARMY EFFICIENCY IF WE SHOULD GO TO WAR

The standing army of the United States comprises 15 regiments of cavalry, 765 officers and 12,775 enlisted men; 6 regiments of field artillery, 236 officers and 5,220 enlisted men; a coast artillery corps, 170 companies, 672 officers and 18,321 enlisted men; 30 regiments of infantry, 1,539 officers, 25,231 enlisted men; 3 battalions of engineers, 2,002 enlisted men. Then there are besides, Indian scouts, recruits, Porto Rico and Philippine scouts, making a total, including the medical reserve corps of officers and enlisted men, of 76,911. The law provides that the total enlisted strength of the army shall not exceed at any one time 100,000.

THE NOCREEK SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE

Program of S. I. L. for Friday evening, April 28, 1911. Song. Roll-call. Reading of minutes. Opening address—Filydia Foster. Speech—Carroll Ward. Reading—Ira Shown. Quartet—Iva Wallace, Luther Chamberlain, Ira Shown and Curry Wallace. Whistling Song—Talbot Miller. Appointment of committee. Recess.

Song. Debate, subject: "Resolved, that Manners will Carry a Person Through the World Better than Money." Affirmative: Belva Buchanan, Tymer Westerfield, Sherman Chamberlain, W. R. Stovens. Negative: O. D. Carson, P. D. Tweddell, Walter Foster, S. P. Sanderfur. Paper. Criticism. Closing Song. Filydia Foster, Sec'y.

Subscribe for The Herald—$1 a Year

RECIPROCITY MEASURE PASSED BY THE HOUSE

Only Ten Democrats Oppose the Measure—Tariff Rates Lowered.

Washington, April 22.—President Taft's Canadian reciprocity agreement, supported by all but a handful of Democrats and opposed by a majority of the Republicans, passed the House early this evening by a vote of 265 to 89. The bill to put the agreement in force was adopted without an amendment and is almost identical with the bill which passed the House at the last session of the preceding Congress.

The bill seeks to put into effect a formal agreement reached between President Taft and the members of the Canadian cabinet, for reduction of tariff rates on many articles and free trade in many others, across the Canadian border. Added to it by Democratic leaders is a section which "authorizes and requests" President Taft to name further efforts to secure still freer trade relations with Canada, in and for additional reciprocity relations.

The passage of the bill marked the close of a six day's fight in the House during which, however, the ultimate safety of the measure was never in doubt.

To-day amendments to almost every section of the bill were voted down by friends of the measure on the theory that any amendment would nullify the whole measure.

Ten Democrats voted against the bill on its passage while 107 Democrats voted for it. Sixty-seven Republicans voted to pass the bill while 78 opposed it. Representatives Powers and Langley, of Kentucky, both voted against the measure.

A Healing Salve for Burns, Chapped Hands and Sore Nipples.

As a healing salve for burns, sores, sore nipples and chapped hands, Chamberlain's Salve is most excellent. It allays the pain of a burn almost instantly, and unless the injury is very severe, heals the parts without leaving a scar. Price, 25 cents. For sale by all dealers.

WANTS ABUSE LEFT OUT OF HIS WIFE'S WILL

New York, April 22.—On the ground that his wife's will contains "libel, contumely, scandal and opprobrious designation" of him, Leopold Alfred Meyer, of Bensonhurst, L. I., filed objections to its probate to-day in the Surrogate Court. Meyer does not object to his wife's distribution of her property, which she left to her mother and sister, but he wants the vituperation and contumely stricken out. Such a proceeding is a novel one in the Surrogate Court.

WILLSON'S EXTRAVAGANCE AN EFFECTIVE ARGUMENT

The State Board of Equalization, under the present administration at Frankfort, has repeatedly transgressed its duties under the law; constituting itself an assessment board instead of an equalizing body. It has radically and arbitrarily raised the assessments of many counties without reference to equalizing values. The last Legislature having refused the request of the Governor to raise the tax rate, the Governor, who appoints this board, seems to have instructed its members to raise taxes to meet the extravagances of his administration without reference to the restrictions placed upon them under the law. In the State campaign now coming on, the Democrats will have no better argument for turning out the Republicans at Frankfort than that afforded by the record of Willson's State Board of Equalization. [Owensboro Messenger.]

The Town of Dunmor.

Dunmor has four dry goods stores, one drug store, two churches, one school building, two hotels, two blacksmith shops, one flour mill, two livery stables, a bank, a park, three doctors and three preachers. Part of the town is in Muhlenberg county and part in Logan. It is just half way between Central City and Russellville, on the L. & N. The town is lighted by natural gas from the wells at Diamond Springs. The recent census gives the town a population of 138, against 77 by census of 1900.

HOPEWELL.

April 24.—Mr. Louis Brown died in Hartford the 22d and was buried at the old graveyard in Taylortown, the 23d. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Virgil Elgin. Mr. Brown was born in 1835, near Rochester, Ky., and served 4 years in the Civil War. He joined the Christian Church about 25 years ago and lived a consistent Christian until death. He leaves one brother, one sister, one son and one grandson to mourn the loss of one whom everybody loved.

Mrs. E. V. Bennett, of near Cerullo, is spending a few days with her father, who is still in ill health.

CROMWELL DEPOSIT BANK IN GOOD CONDITION

To the Stockholders, Patrons and Friends of Cromwell Deposit Bank:

On April 19, 1911, Mr. J. A. Frazer, State Bank Examiner, made a thorough examination of this bank and found it in good condition and said to the directors that he had not found cleaner paper in any bank he had examined in the State of Kentucky. We thank you for your patronage and confidence and hope by a strict adherence to sound business principles to merit a continuance of your business and confidence.

Respectfully,
J. J. STEWART, Pres.
T. E. COOPER, Vice Pres.
Cromwell, Ky., April 20, 1911.

Notice to Wheat Growers.

The wheat growers of Ohio county met at the court house in Hartford Saturday, April 22, 1911. After a very interesting session, the meeting adjourned to meet at Beaver Dam next Saturday, April 29th, at one o'clock p. m. All wheat growers are requested to be present.

T. H. BALMAIN, Pres.
By W. H. RHOADS, Sec'y.

I. O. O. F. Anniversary.

For the 92d Anniversary Celebration of the Founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Will be observed in this city by Acme Lodge No. 339, on Wednesday afternoon April 26, at 2:30.

Prayer—Chaplain Bruner.
Ritualistic Ceremony—Noble Grand Hedrick and Vice Grand Wallace.

Song—Miss Hettie Riley.
Address, "Friendship"—Bro. J. W. Bruner.

Song—Miss Ruth Riley.
Address, "Love"—Bro. G. B. Likens.

Violin Solo—Mr. Emory G. Schroeter.
Address, "Truth"—Bro. C. M. Barnett.

Song—Miss Susie Wright.
Refreshments.
Benediction—Bro. James T. Davis.

BEAVER DAM.

April 24.—Mr. Byron Barnes has gone to New York with a car load of chickens which they bought since the pooled chickens were shipped.

Mrs. Dan Kelly, of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Leach, of Central City, visited Mr. George Barnes last week.

Rev. Repast, president of the Logan Female College of Russellville, delivered a very interesting discourse at the Methodist Church Sunday.

Mr. John Hodge has sold his farm situated in Union neighborhood, to John Blankenship. The consideration was $600.

Mr. John King and wife entertained their old neighbors recently, having present his aged mother-in-law, Mrs. Bratcher, of Centertown, and Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. William Flener, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Likens, Mrs. Kate Davis, Misses Eula Rowe and Myra Flener, all of this city.

Mr. H. D. Taylor, who has been on a hunting trip to Colorado, has returned and reports a good time, having killed a mountain lion, a wolf and a mountain cat.

BOOKER TRYING TO BUY A RAILROAD SYSTEM

Dallas, Tex., April 24.—Booker T. Washington, the negro educator, and negro financiers of the North are planning to buy the International and Great Northern railroad at the receivership sale in Palestine, May 15, according to a report printed here to-day. It is said Washington will attempt to operate the road with negro labor exclusively.

U. C. V. Reunion, Little Rock, Ark., May 15th to 18th.

For the above occasion, the L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets at $19.15, dates of sale, May 13th and 15th.

Final Limit of Tickets—All tickets will be limited to reach original starting point returning, not later than midnight of May 23d, 1911, unless extended at Little Rock, by depositing ticket with J. E. Hennegan, special agent, with a fee of fifty cents, before May 23d, ticket will be extended to final limit to and including June 14th, 1911. Any one desiring to attend this reunion, will please advise me three days before date of going, so as to secure tickets.
1713 H. E. MISCHKE, Agt

THE AMERICAN WORKINGMAN

Is the best dressed workingman in the world. He ought to be, for the workingman is a very important part of this country. We make a specialty of workingmen's clothes. We think we have the best working clothes that are made anywhere. They are made in clean, airy workrooms, of the best materials and in the most careful way. They will save money for any workingman who wears them. We take special pains with our workingmen's.....

Suits and Separate Trousers.

The clothes are all-wools and unions, of the best makes to give good service. The clothing is as skillfully cut as any, is sewed with strong thread and is made to last in every respect. The prices are very close.

We want the workingman's trade.

CARSON & CO., INCORPORATED. HARTFORD, - KENTUCKY.

The Clothiers.

AN ALDERMAN WAS SLAIN BY A TURFMAN

Patrick J. Mooney, Shot By Thomas Dolan in Row Over Hotel Bill.

Lexington, Ky., April 20.—Alderman Patrick J. Mooney was slain in the lobby of the Leland Hotel tonight by Thomas Dolan, a lawyer and turfman, whose home was formerly in Louisville.

Mooney was shot four times, one fatal bullet piercing his heart and the other three making flesh wounds, two in the breast and one in the left arm.

Mooney was the partner of Representative William F. Klair in the ownership of the Leland Hotel. Dolan had for several years prior to October 1, 1909, made his home at the Leland, and had been, chiefly through the decline in the value of thoroughbred horses that constituted his principal asset, hard up for money and on that date was in arrears for his board $222.

Mooney had told him that he could not carry him further and asked for his room. He left the hotel and had not stopped there until the sixth of the present month, which he returned from Florida and got a room with the understanding that he was to pay for it in advance at the rate of 75 cents per night.

Tuesday night and Wednesday night he was without money and was given credit. To-day Mooney told Dolan that he did not care to credit him further, and after an argument, Dolan paid him the $150 and moved his baggage to the Reel Hotel.

About 10 o'clock to-night he entered the hotel, and, according to the witnesses, after a few words, fired the fatal shot.

For Sale.

White Plymouth Rocks. Good layers. Bred from prize winners. Stock and eggs for sale.
MURRAY A. HUDSON,
12m3-p McHenry, Ky.

Sammel S. Stahl Dead.

Mr. Samuel S. Stahl died Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock at the home of his son, Mr. John Stahl, 813 Parrish avenue, Owensboro. Death was caused by paralysis. Mr. Stahl was 78 years old, and was born in Warren county, being the son of Mr. Ben Stahl. He is survived by his wife and son.

Many years ago Mr. and Mrs. Stahl were well known hotel keepers in Hartford, having charge of the old Commercial Hotel, and they are well remembered by our older citizens.

CERULLO.

April 24.—Misses Anna and Mary Casebier, of Paradise, visited friends and relatives here last week. Mrs. P. A. Millner and son Eldridge are visiting at Livermore and Sacramento.

Little Miss Mary Ethel Everly is visiting relatives at Equality.

Messrs. L. P. Fulkerson and C. B. Everly have gone to Evansville on a raft of logs.

Master Hugh Everly is attending school at Rockport.

Mrs. Rosa and Era Woodburn, of Rockport, visited friends and relatives here last week.

Mrs. J. W. Baker went to Madisonville recently to have her eyes treated.

Jones Brand, Pure Animal Matter Fertilizers, manufactured by Jones Fertilizer Co., Louisville, Ky., for sale by W. E. Ellis, The Produce Man, Hartford, Ky. 14t4

CENTERTOWN.

April 24.—Mr. Pete Swain, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out again.

Several from here have been attending court at Hartford the past week.

Mr. L. D. Jackson, of Kirtley, Ky., has his new residence here about completed and will move to it right soon.

Sunday Schools are progressing nicely here. There were over 100 in attendance at each Sunday School last Sunday.

Rev. J. W. Bruner preached on Missions at the Centertown Baptist church last Friday night.

Never Out of Work.

The busiest little thing ever made are Dr. King's Now Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, languor into energy, brain-fog into mental power; curing constipation, headache, chills, dyspepsia, malaria. Only 25c at James H. Williams.

Subscribe for The Herald. $1 a year.

Our New... Spring Suits...

For the last ten days our Clothing Department has had a great rush. Wide-awake, tasteful buyers are beginning to realize the importance of buying their clothing at our store. Why? Because we handle exclusively STERLING BENCH TAILORED line, the line that outstrips all competition, in price and quality. Every suit sold makes a permanent customer. Be wise and join the great crowd that buys our Sterling Suits; then you will be well dressed and happy. One entire room devoted exclusively to Men's wear. Two things always bear in mind when you start shopping—trade at Headquarters and with a House That Saves You Money.

FAIR & CO. THE FAIR DEALERS.

SPECIAL CASH PRICES

One Day Only, SATURDAY, APRIL 29th, '11

1 Bbl. Patent Flour.....	$5.00.
48 Lbs. Patent Flour.....	$1.30.
24 Lbs. Patent Flour.....	.65c.
1 Bbl. Custom Flour.....	$4.50.
24 Lbs. Custom Flour.....	.60c.
50 Lbs. Tin Pure Lard.....	$5.25.
10 Lbs. Pail Pure Lard.....	$1.20.
2 Packages Arbuckle Coffee.....	.45c.
Good Meat, by the Side.....	.13c.

All orders for goods at the above low prices must be accompanied by the cash.

HARTFORD GROCERY COMPANY.

Illinois Central Railroad—Time Table at Beaver Dam, Ky.

North Bound.	South Bound.
No. 132—4:05 a.m. No. 121—11:35 p.m.	No. 122—12:28 p.m. No. 101—2:48 p.m.
No. 122—12:28 p.m. No. 101—2:48 p.m.	No. 102—2:48 p.m. No. 131—8:55 p.m.
J. E. Williams, Agt.

Don't forget Rosenblatt's Sale begins Monday, May 1.

You can't afford to miss Rosenblatt's Big Selling-Out Sale.

Flowers and Flower Pots for sale by E. T. Williams, Hartford, 13tf

Miss Arbye Brown, of Centertown, is the guest of relatives at Pikeville, Ky.

Remember you get new up-to-date goods at Rosenblatt's during this Big Selling-Out Sale.

Dr. Clarence Woodburn, of Beaver Dam, was a pleasant caller at The Herald office Friday.

Mr. Harold Holbrook has returned from several months sojourn in California, much improved in health.

The singing convention announced to take place at Clear Run the fifth Sunday in this month has been postponed to the fifth Sunday in July, owing to the prevalence of measles. Choirs will please prepare themselves.

A postoffice has been established at Sunnydale, this county, and Mr. F. L. Sanderfur has been appointed postmaster.

Leave your Laundry at my Grocery. Domestic finish. Work Guaranteed. Called for and prompt delivery. Phone 140. Her's Grocery.

Mr. O. K. Rowe, of Centertown, has accepted a position as harbor in Mr. J. W. Taylor's tinsorial parlor at this place.

Misses Cullie Morris, Cora Thomason, Lula Hardin and Fronia King, city, were pleasant callers at The Herald office Thursday.

For Sale, Farms—All sizes, from $1 to 300 acres. We can please you if you want to buy land.

A. C. YEISER & CO., Hartford, Ky.

It is said that more than two hundred cases of measles have developed at McHenry, this county, recently. The disease is of rather a mild type.

Misses Bunnie Wood, of Rochester, Ky., Daucie Taylor, of Beaver Dam, were the guests of Miss Sue Wright, city, a few days last week.

Dr. T. D. Renfrow, a former dentist of Hartford, but recently at Dundee, this county, has located at Livermore for the practice of his profession.

Mr. Alvin Rowe, Dr. W. M. Warden and J. E. Curtis, Centertown, were in Hartford yesterday.

Messrs. Sclotha Hocker, Centertown, and R. H. Taylor, Wysox, were among The Herald's callers Friday.

Messrs. D. Lee Barnes, Beaver Dam; Sam Bennett and Dr. J. A. Duff, Dundee, were among The Herald's callers Thursday.

Mr. Herman A. Birkhead and wife, Owensboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Birkhead, city, from Saturday until Monday.

Messrs. Sam Morton, Ceralvo; Joe C. Bennett, city, and Crit Martin, Sanderfur's Crossing, were among The Herald's callers Monday.

Mr. Armistead Jones, Nelson; Harrison Austin and Judge J. M. Porter, Beaver Dam, were among The Herald's callers yesterday.

Messrs. Ves Taylor, Hartford, route 6, and A. V. Rowan, Hartford, route 7, were among those who called on The Herald Saturday.

Old Papers, Lots of 'Em—For sale at The Herald office. To go on shelves or under carpets or for blasting purposes. Five cents per large package.

Messrs. L. W. Peyton and E. A. Davenport, Wysox; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burgess, Prentiss, were among those who called at The Herald office yesterday.

Mrs. Maggie Griffin has returned from a visit to relatives at Owensboro. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Craig Bell, who will make an extended visit here.

Misses Amy M. Longest and Victoria Clemons, of Powderly, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, city, while attending the Christian Church Convention.

Floral design book of F. Walker & Co., of Louisville, and can furnish floral designs for funerals and special occasions.

E. T. WILLIAMS, Hartford, Ky.

Mrs. Ella D. Boone, Philadelphia, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Felix, Hartford, for the past two weeks, will leave to-day for Hickman, Ky., where she will visit Mrs. Dodge.

Mrs. Robert Matthews, of Kronos, Ky., but who is stopping in Hartford under treatment of Dr. Ford, and Mrs. Willie Wakeland, city, were pleasant callers at The Herald office yesterday.

Messrs. J. M. Moore, Hartford, route 2; Jas. T. Davis, Hartford, route 1; Dr. J. T. Godsey, Shreve, and J. T. Funk, Hartford, route 5, were among those who called at The Herald office Wednesday.

Prof. T. H. Smith, Vice President of Hartford College, will deliver an address at Bennett's Schoolhouse on Saturday, May 6, at 2 o'clock p. m. Subject: "The Benefits of Equity and Educational Methods."

Two handsome presents, each valued at $6, will be given away absolutely free each Saturday by the Ohio County Drug Co.—Griffin's old stand. For every dollar's worth of goods bought you get a chance.

Misses Amy M. Longest and Victoria Clemons, Powderly, Ky., Mrs. Fred Cooper and niece, Miss Goldie Cooper, city, and Master Lionel Trout, of Cromwell, gave The Herald an appreciated call Saturday.

Miss Mamie Henry, living near Madisonville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sadie E. Williams. Mr. Percy Henry and Miss Nannie Henry will stop off to-morrow for a day or two to visit Mrs. Williams while on their way home from Kingswood College.

Correspondents of The Herald—Please give the residence of all visitors whom you name, also the residence of the one they are visiting, and mention only those who go to or come from a distance. People who visited their neighbors is hardly considered news.

An elegant 43-piece Dinner Set or a handsome 10-piece Chamber Set—each worth $6—will be given away free each Saturday by the Ohio County Drug Co. Save your tickets on small purchases. When you get a dollar's worth you get a guess free at these valuable prizes. Try your luck!

Mrs. A. D. Buskill, of Houston, Tex., and Mr. Chas. W. Griffin, Helena, Ark., were here at their old home Saturday, to attend the funeral of their father, Mr. W. H. Griffin. Young Mr. Griffin left for his home in Helena yesterday, accompanied by his mother, he will stay with him and his wife awhile before going to visit his daughter, Mrs. Buskill, at Houston.

Mr. James T. Sanderfur, a former resident of Hartford and who was born and reared here, was married last Wednesday to Miss Josie May Hopgood, of Greenwood, S. C. The marriage occurred at Atlanta, Ga., at the residence of a friend. Mr. Sanderfur is at present superintendent of railroad construction work at Greenwood. He is a son of Attorney J. P. Sanderfur, of Hartford, and a most worthy young man.

Miss Ethel Bennett died at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Bennett, of Bada, last Monday, of dropsy. Her remains were interred at Bada cemetery yesterday, Revs. R. D. Bennett and W. B. Wright, of Hartford, conducting the funeral services. She was 31 years old and besides her parents, leaves one sister and four brothers. She had been a member of the Presbyterian church since a mere child. She was of a lovable disposition and her bright presence will be sorely missed.

RESPECTED CITIZEN GONE—MR. HENRY GRIFFIN DEAD

Mr. W. H. Griffin, one of Hartford's most respected citizens, died at his residence here early last Friday morning, after a lingering illness of rheumatism and kindred troubles. For many years he was in the drug business in Hartford, both as manager and pharmacist, having begun here with the old firm of Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., and for awhile was also in the same business at Elizabethtown, Ky. Under a Democratic administration, he was also postmaster here for several years. Just previous to his death he had been confined to his home and bed for about two years. He was 61 years old when he died.

In Mr. Griffin's death, the last of a large and much beloved family has passed away. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Inez Griffin; one daughter, Mrs. A. D. Buskill, of Houston, Texas, and a son, Mr. Chas. W. Griffin, of Helena, Ark. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church here Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Virgil Elgin. The interment was at Oakwood, where the services were conducted by Hartford Lodge F. & A. M. No. 675, of which Mr. Griffin had long been a member. He was a good man, a christian gentleman, and leaves an honorable record.

W. L. Brown Dead.

Mr. W. L. Brown, better known as "Uncle Luke," died at the residence of his son, Prof. H. E. Brown, Walnut street, city, last Saturday night, after a brief illness of diseases incident to old age with acute complications which set up last Thursday night. His remains were taken Sunday to his farm near Rochester, where, after funeral services conducted by Rev. Virgil Elgin, his remains were interred in the family burying grounds in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives.

Mr. Brown was born on the 8th day of March, 1835, near Rochester, Ky., and served four years in the Civil War. He joined the Christian church about 25 years ago and has lived a consistent christian life since.

EASTVIEW.

April 24.—Mrs. Ben Ambrose returned to her home at Henderson Friday, after spending several days in this vicinity with friends and relatives.

Mr. J. L. Massie and son Louis made a business trip to Hartford Saturday.

Mr. B. F. French was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Austin, of Beaver Dam, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Meck Taylor is on the sick list.

Orval, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jewell, is dangerously ill of measles and pneumonia.

That there are a lot of folks who pay double what they should for eye-glasses, in thinking they have to go to a specialist to be fitted right? I know when a patient should go to a specialist and tell him so, for I know I can't give him satisfaction, which is essential to success, but I do know if your need of glasses is due to age only, I can fit you as well as Mr. Specialist, at about half the price. Try in such cases to spend the $ at home and maybe you'll get it back again.

J. B. TAPPAN, The Prosperous Jeweler and Optician.

GOOD WORDS FOR HARTFORD BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

The following is from the current issue of the Kentucky Mission Monthly:

The work at Hartford is probably unexcelled anywhere. Pastor J. W. Bruner, while full-time pastor there, preaches somewhere every Sunday afternoon, and is continually on the go. He is a very hard worker. He has recently taken the teachers' training course and received a diploma, and besides the regular teacher training class, which meets on Sunday morning at the Sunday School bower, Bro. Bruner has led the teachers in this work himself. Last Sunday evening they had a special service planned, at which time twenty diplomas were delivered, besides several seals for other books were given to teachers who had previously completed the Convention Normal Manual. Dr. B. H. DeMent made the address and delivered the diplomas. Nearly every officer and teacher in the school now holds a diploma. In connection with our meeting there, the town was canvassed, and while the school was already well graded, at the request of Dr. E. W. Ford, the superintendent, and his workers, we assisted them in making some few changes that were necessary in order to complete the grading and place them in line for their regular promotion. Dr. Ford we consider one of the best Sunday School men to be found. In fact we have never seen his superior as a superintendent. The teachers and officers, as a whole, are capable and efficient. They are doing real Sunday School work.

Notice.

All persons having claims against Dr. Joe T. Miller, deceased, will present the same to the undersigned executors, at Hartford, Ky., on or before the 3d day of May, 1911, properly proven as required by law, or they will be forever barred.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to said decedent will please come forward at once and settle their accounts and save cost.

This April 3, 1911.

D. G. MILLER, ELIZABETH S. MILLER, Executors of the last will of Dr. Joe T. Miller, deceased. 1414

For Sale—Town property, vacant lots, cottages and two-story dwellings. A. C. YEISER & CO., Hartford, Ky.

Makes Home Baking Easy

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Teachers meeting Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Sunday School session Sunday morning at 9:45 a. m., Dr. E. W. Ford, Superintendent.

Morning worship at 11 o'clock and evening worship at 7:45.

BLOOD POISONED FROM THE TOE OF CHICKEN

Evansville, Ind., April 22.—A. L. Yants, a wealthy farmer, while wringing off the head of a chicken several days ago, was scratched on the back of his hand by the toe of the fowl. Blood poison has developed.

SPECIAL PRICES ON FLOUR.

The Hartford Mill Co., (Incorporated), is making a SPECIAL CASH PRICE ON FLOUR for 30 days.

1 bl. Fancy Patent Flour.....	$5.00
1 bl. Straight Patent Flour.....	$4.75
1 bl. Straight Grade Flour.....	$4.25

Remember SPOT CASH and no goods delivered at these prices. Everything guaranteed.

Yours truly, W. H. RILEY.

Look! - Look!

—FOR—

Rosenblatt's

—BIG—

Selling Out Sale!

Going to Quit Business

Entire new $10,000 stock to be sold at 50 cents on the dollar.

SALE BEGINS

Monday, May 1st, AND LASTS THIRTY DAYS!

Watch for the hand bills that will be delivered at your door.

We are next door to Bank of Hartford.

ROSENALBTT'S,

THE STORE THAT SATISFIES.

Time table effective Sunday, Dec. 4th, contains the following schedule:
No. 112 North Bound due 7:29 a. m.
Daily except Sunday.
No. 114 North Bound due 3:40 p. m.
Daily except Sunday.
No. 115 South Bound due 8:55 a. m.
Daily except Sunday.
No. 113 South Bound due 1:46 p. m.
Daily except Sunday.
H. E. MISCHE, Agt.

SPINSTER'S WISH FOR LITTLE CHILD

Prompted Her to Carefully
Save Earnings.

SHE LIVED ON $2.00 A WEEK

In Order to Hoard Her Meager
Savings, Out of $6.00 a Week Wages.

FOR SAKE OF "LITTLE ROSE"

St. Louis, Mo., April 22.—Miss Rose Robinson, 61 years old, for 13 years has lived on $2 a week, while she has saved the rest of her meager earnings as a seamstress for the future care and education of some orphan girl whom she desires, after her death, to take her name. She is an Englishwoman and manifests gentle breeding. Her remarkable self-sacrifice was brought to light through a loss which endangered the hoarded sum to-day.

An old mahogany box containing her certificate of deposit for the amount of the savings, $931.50, and the will in which she bequeathed the whole amount to the Christian Missionary Society, for the benefit of the future little Rose, disappeared a few days ago from its accustomed place in her small bare room in the rear of 1415 North Thirtieth street.

Hurrying to a bank when she discovered her loss, Miss Robinson was rejoiced to learn that the money was intact. But to regain possession of it she was required to advertise the loss of the deposit certificate, and she will also have to give bond for twice the amount of the deposit. She began advertising immediately and notified the police of her loss.

"It was my wish, as a young woman, to have a little girl of my own," said the gray-haired little woman, "but it was not meant that this wish should be gratified, for no man ever asked me to marry him."

"I came to St. Louis 30 years ago from England and found employment in clothing factories as a seamstress. I have worked in this way ever since. I have been able to earn as much as $6.50 a week when work is steady, and I found that I could rent a room for $1 a week and could get what I needed to eat and wear for another dollar a week."

"So I began to save my money for a baby. I decided to leave the money to the Christian Missionary Society, and to let it select the baby after my death."

"Whenever I would put a dollar away, I would say to myself: 'There is a pair of shoes for little Rose,' or, 'There's a book for her.' That made it easy, and I was surprised to find how much I could save."

"In 1898 I had almost $1,000 saved, but I had it in a building and loan company which collapsed and most of it was lost. With what little was left I started again to save, resolving that if I could keep my health I would have enough money for little Rose when I died."

"I am unable to understand how the box came to disappear, but I am glad the money is not lost."

In cases of rheumatism, relief from pain is obtained by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

AN OHIO COUNTY BOY MARRIES IN OKLAHOMA

The following from the Mountain Park Herald, of Mountain Park, Okla., concerning the marriage of Mr. Sam Jones, son of Mrs. Sallie E. Jones, of this city, will be read with interest by the friends in this county of the young man. Only a few weeks ago Mr. Jones spent several days here visiting his mother and sisters. The Herald says:

Wednesday evening at his home, Rev. J. H. Cook united in marriage

Sam Jones and Miss Anna Hook, two of our town's very popular young folks.

The bride is the daughter of C. H. Hook, and is a talented and beautiful young lady with charming manners.

Everyone in and around Mountain Park knows Sam Jones, but for the benefit of our readers away who might confuse our Sam Jones with the great Sam Jones, evangelist, we will say that our Sam Jones is a live one, while Sam Jones—evangelist—is dead, that is, he was for a short time until he received his pass by St. Peter. Our Sam Jones is at present office deputy for Sheriff Brashears and it requires a live, energetic man to fill the bill. Before accepting his present position he was for several years connected with the Citizens Bank and in that capacity made many friends by his courteous manners.

The young couple will reside in Mountain Park, and assist in making the "Gem of the Wichitas" the fairest spot in Oklahoma.

A REMARKABLE FAMILY

---TELL IT TO ROOSEVELT!

A Man and Wife Have Thirteen Boys and All Are Under Five Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, of Highland, Kan., are seeking a home in this State with plenty of land. They will need it, for, although they have been married not quite ten years, they are the parents of 19 children, all boys, and 13 of them living. They hold the record for triplets, having five sets to their credit, and two sets of twins. All of the 13 boys living are under five years.

Recently the Scotts, deciding that they must find more land, went to Alberta, Canada. They were not satisfied there and returned. On the return trip Mrs. Scott and her 13 children all rode on one first-class ticket. At Omaha the conductor made a vigorous protest. "Madam, you cannot carry a whole Sunday school along with you on that one ticket," he said, "and you need not tell me those are all yours. You will have to pay for some of them."

"The rules of this railroad provide that a child under five years may ride free, when accompanied by its parent with a first-class ticket, don't they?" reported Mrs. Scott.

"They do, but you will have to show me."

Mrs. Scott dug down into her valise and brought out the family Bible, in which was recorded the names and ages of each of the children. The conductor had to give in. The mother and children occupied five double seats in the home-seekers' car and paid for only one.

The names and ages of the children are: Ashtell, Archer and Austin, triplets, four and a half years old; Arthur and Arnold, twins, three and a half; Allan, Almon and Albin, triplets, two and a half; Albert, Albin and Adolph, triplets, 18 months; Abel and Abner, twins, six months. Mrs. Scott is 30 years old and her husband is only a year her senior.

The mother and children are now in Highland, Kan., while the father is in Oklahoma, seeking a location. He probably will buy some cheap Indian land.—[Muskogee (Okla.) Cor. New York World.]

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Hartford Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Hartford readers.

William Johnson, Cloverport, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case proved to be a very reliable remedy and consequently I have no hesitation in recommending them. For six years my kidneys were disordered, the secretions being too frequent in passage and when allowed to stand, depositing sediment. My back ached severely, particularly at night, and in the morning I was so lame and sore that I could scarcely get around. Whenever I contracted the slightest cold, it settled in my kidneys and made my suffering more intense. Doan's Kidney Pills have given me great relief from these troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

COME TO THE ISLE OF ILOILO

Says Local Editor in the Philippines.

IT IS A FINE PLACE TO DIE

Some of the Peculiarities of This Section of the Island of Panay.

WIDE RANGE OF ENTICEMENTS

Iloilo is an island located in the water (salt water). It is a part of the island of Panay, which is also surrounded by salt water (aqua salo). The island is bordered on one side by a stone wall and on the other side by bamboo shacks. These are placed there to keep the island from being washed away in the aforesaid salt water. Iloilo is best known for its claim as the second city. Every one knows it's the second city, because every one says it is. A stranger, after looking it over, remarks, "God help the third city." This city is blessed with a purely native administration. The Mayor, the Consueles, the Chief of Police, the Chief of the Board of Health, the City Engineer, &c., are all natives and they act as such. The American army and the post-office are still represented by Americans, which, in the minds of many, is an injustice. The town is blessed with several newspapers whose policy is to get advertisements. Amusements are plentiful. We produce here the grandest of operas. And we must be thankful that their composers are dead, for to hear them as rendered here and live happily ever after, is impossible. The cinematographs are here with their continuous performances. Tragedies and comedies are here portrayed for the small sums of 10-20-30 centavos. Fans are continually kept in circulation to keep the small a-moving, the management believing that it would not be fair for one part of the house to get it all. Transportation is furnished by lively stables. Here, in these stables, you can procure fast and slow horses, that move, trot, gallop, stop, hack, turn somersault, all at their pleasure, and for the price of the fare. No extra charge is asked if you don't get to your destination. We have two ice plants, which furnish ice made of water. The Board of Health is next to this so far. Clubs are numerous—American, Spanish, English, 606—and policemen clubs, they are open to strangers and a welcome is extended, providing you belong to the class nine.

The town is illuminated (sometimes by electricity). Coal oil, coconut and candle power lights are turned on at dark and turned off at dark. The financiers of the town are H-Nix on the chatter and the editor of The Star. The population is cosmopolitan. You will find here American, Swiss, Republicans, English, Immortalists, Jews, Californians and missionaries. They are a loving community, and helpful to one another. Americans here are all wealthy. They work because they like to, the mosquitoes do not disturb you—in fact, no one pays any attention to them when under a mosquito bar. The streets are beautifully paved—with mud. The markets are a monument to Iloilo. Products of all descriptions can be purchased here. The market is flushed with water every day and night, providing it rains or the tide is a trifle high. The usual market smell is, of course, here, with the addition of other smells. Cute little dabs of beetle-nut juice can be seen everywhere. Enticing glasses of the succulent tuba are set out for your delectation. In the tuba glass can be seen the camaraderie, the spirit of equality in the Philippines. Every one drinking out of the same glass, too or illustrado, rich or poor, sick or well, it's all the same, and down they go. It's clean, it's healthful, and we, los Americanos, should pattern ourselves a little after our dear little brown brothers. The police here are ever watchful for the welfare of the citizens, be he pants or pantless. The fire department, ah, ve of other towns, take notice! The wells and the town pump are at all times there and ready, and so is the bamboo merchant—oh, you inhabitants of other cities, come on and all visit this gem, this jewel, this talapaloozie; come here and die! P. S.—Plenty of room in the graveyards.—[Iloilo (P. I.) Star.]

Private H. Harter, who has just joined the First Battalion Grenadier Guards, is only 18 years of age, but stands 6 feet 8 1/4 inches in his stockings, and is still growing. He is said to be the tallest soldier in the British Army. "My father, who is a Devonshire farmer, is," he says, "6 feet 5 inches, and my mother is 5 feet 10 inches, so I think it must be hereditary. I have lived nearly all my life in the country. I am doing two hours a day in a gymnasium and about three hours' drill, so that in a month or two I ought to reach 6 feet 9 1/4 inches. I have smoked since I was 14, or I do not know how tall I should have been."

Formerly Major Oswald Ames, of the Second Life Guards, who is 6 feet 7 1/2 inches, was said to be the tallest soldier in the army.—[London Mail.]

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Private H. Harter, who has just joined the First Battalion Grenadier Guards, is only 18 years of age, but stands 6 feet 8 1/4 inches in his stockings, and is still growing. He is said to be the tallest soldier in the British Army.

"My father, who is a Devonshire farmer, is," he says, "6 feet 5 inches, and my mother is 5 feet 10 inches, so I think it must be hereditary. I have lived nearly all my life in the country. I am doing two hours a day in a gymnasium and about three hours' drill, so that in a month or two I ought to reach 6 feet 9 1/4 inches. I have smoked since I was 14, or I do not know how tall I should have been."

Formerly Major Oswald Ames, of the Second Life Guards, who is 6 feet 7 1/2 inches, was said to be the tallest soldier in the army.—[London Mail.]

The Louisville Times of Wednesday says:
Toddling away from her home, at 1908 Tyler avenue at 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, little Elsie Olivo Snyder, four years old, the daughter of E. M. Snyder, an ash cart driver in the employ of the city, was found at 7 o'clock, hanging lifeless from a board fence in the back yard of Jno. D. Radford's residence, 1926 Tyler avenue. The child was discovered by her father and evidently had strangled to death, her head being caught in a hole in the fence through which it is thought she had been looking at some turkeys. The father carried the child to the home only a few doors away and hastily summoned Dr. J. G. Hutchinson, of 2008 Portland avenue, but he could do nothing, as he stated that the child had been dead three-quarters of an hour.

The little girl suffered intense agony before death gave relief, as evidenced by the clenched hands and distorted features. The hole in the fence was about a foot above the head of the child, and in order to look through it, she had to find a foothold for her feet. Apparently he foot slipped after she put her head through the hole.

Little Elsie was missed by her mother when the evening meal had been placed upon the table about 6:30 o'clock. Mr. Snyder started out to hunt for her, after asking the neighbors to assist him. After a diligent search, she was discovered by the parent, who was almost overcome by grief at the sight of his little daughter hanging from the fence. Coroner Duncan was called and declared that death was due to an accident. Mrs. Snyder swooned when informed of the tragic end of the little one, and is under a physician's care. The Snyder family has two other children, Stewart and Sophia May Snyder, six and eight years old respectively. The turkeys, a sight of which the little girl gave her life, belong to Thomas Gilbert, an engineer in the employ of the Government, and were in his back yard, next door to the Radford residence.

Constipation brings many ailments in its train and is the primary cause of much sickness. Keep your bowels regular, madam, and you will escape many of the ailments to which women are subject. Constipation is a very simple thing, but like many simple things, it may lead to serious consequences. Nature often needs a little assistance and when Chamberlain's Tablets are given at the first indication, much distress and suffering may be avoided. Sold by all dealers.

No, it Wouldn't.
Hubby (with newspaper)—Well, well! Another bank gone to smash and none of the directors knew anything about what was going on.

Mrs. Vottington—Of course not! It wouldn't be so if directors were all women.

For Sixteen Years
Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey has been used by millions of people with perfect satisfaction. For coughs, colds, asthma, in fact all throat and bronchial troubles.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

ONE ON THE CORN DOCTOR
BY CORK-FOOTED MAN

Samuel Morgan, gate tender at the West Main street crossing of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, put one over on an itinerant corn doctor to-day. Calling at Morgan's abanty, the doctor discoursed on the wonders of his corn salve. Morgan owned up that his feet were on the "fritz," but dolefully declared no cure was possible.

"My dear sir, you are just the kind of person I make a convert of every time," returned the visitor enthusiastically, following this up with profuse flow of language.

Morgan listened mournfully. Finally he leaned over, turned some thumb-screws, removed his feet and handed them to the doctor with, "Well, go ahead and see what you can do."

Morgan lost his feet in a railroad accident 20 years ago.—[Massillon (O.) Cor. Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, worn-out expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame. Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dangerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind. It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"After my doctor had done all he said he could for me," writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark., "I took Cardui, on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much. Before taking Cardui, I had suffered from female troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health. I think there is some of the best advice in your book that I ever saw." Your druggist sells Cardui. Try it.

Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent free.

POEMS YOU'LL ENJOY.
The Herald's Special Selections.
THE CONQUEROR.

It's easy to laugh when the skies are blue
And the sun is shining bright;
Yes, easy to laugh when your friends are true
And there's happiness in sight;
But when Hope has fled and the skies are gray,
And the friends of the past have turned away,
Ah, then indeed, it's a hero's feat
To conjure a smile in the face of defeat.

It's easy to laugh when the storm is o'er
And your ship is safe in port;
Yes, easy to laugh when you're on the shore
Secure from the tempest's sport;
But when wild waves dash o'er the storm-swept deck
And your gallant ship is a battered wreck,
Ah, that is the time when it's well worth while
To look in the face of defeat with a smile.

It's easy to laugh when the battle's fought
And you know that the victory's won;
Yes, easy to laugh when the prize you sought
Is yours when the race is run;
But here's to the man who can laugh when the blast
Of adversity blows—he will conquer at last,
For the hardest man in the world to beat
Is the man who can laugh in the face of defeat.
—[By Emil Carl Aurin, in the National Magazine.]

This Is An Easy Test.
Shake Allen's Foot-Ease in one shoe, and not in the other, and notice the difference. Just the thing to use when rubbers or overshoes become necessary, and your shoes seem to pinch. Sold everywhere, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Sample Free. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. 1474

RECEIVES AN ORDER FOR BUTTERFLIES FROM LONDON

Norton Well, of Calhoun, Ky., has just received an order from Charles N. Rothschild, a noted entomologist of London, England, for several specimens of butterflies. Well has the best collection of butterflies in this section of the country. Rothschild sent Well a box in which to ship the butterflies. The box arrived at the Evansville United States customs office, and because of its peculiar shape, attracted a good deal of attention.

The ingredients are on the carton. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey contains no habit-producing drugs, and always gives satisfaction. Look for the bell on the bottle.

ONE ON THE CORN DOCTOR
BY CORK-FOOTED MAN

Samuel Morgan, gate tender at the West Main street crossing of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, put one over on an itinerant corn doctor to-day. Calling at Morgan's abanty, the doctor discoursed on the wonders of his corn salve. Morgan owned up that his feet were on the "fritz," but dolefully declared no cure was possible.

"My dear sir, you are just the kind of person I make a convert of every time," returned the visitor enthusiastically, following this up with profuse flow of language.

Morgan listened mournfully. Finally he leaned over, turned some thumb-screws, removed his feet and handed them to the doctor with, "Well, go ahead and see what you can do."

Morgan lost his feet in a railroad accident 20 years ago.—[Massillon (O.) Cor. Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as the cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials—free.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, price 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Notice to Claimants.
All persons having claims against the estate of S. F. Jones, deceased, are hereby notified to present same to me, at my residence, one and one-half miles west of Centertown, Kentucky, properly proven, on or before May 1, 1911, or they will be forever barred. All persons indebted to the estate by note or account must settle at once, as the estate has to be wound up.
J. R. ADDINGTON, Admr.,
1314 Centertown, Ky.

For better, ringworm, eczema, running sores and all skin diseases, Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve is guaranteed to give satisfaction or you get your money back. 25c everywhere. m

Three hundred thousand sovereigns lie at the bottom of the sea in two safes in a cabin of the Birkenhead, sunk off the African coast over fifty years ago.

How Old People
May Prolong
Their Lives

At advanced age the organs act more slowly than in youth. Circulation becomes poor, blood thin and watery, appetite fitful, and digestion weak. This condition leaves the system open to disease such as Coughs, Colds, Grippe, Pneumonia, Rheumatism, etc.

VINOL is the greatest health creator and body builder we know of for old people, as it supplies the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissue and replace weakness with strength.

HERE IS THE PROOF
A case is recorded in Albany, N. Y., of a woman who felt she was breaking down by age and was doomed to the weak and feeble condition of old people. She had no strength and the slightest exertion tired her, but VINOL made her well and strong, and she states that she feels ten years younger than she did before taking VINOL.

We ask every aged person in this neighborhood to try a bottle of VINOL with the understanding that we will return their money if it does not prove beneficial.

For Sale by Hartford Drug Co., (Incorporated)

KENTUCKY HAS URBAN GROWTH

Durand Hands Out More Census Figures.

CITIES SHOW LARGEST GAINS

Towns and Villages Fail to Keep Step in March of Progress, Many Being Almost Entirely Depopulated by Movement Toward Larger Centers of Population—Maysville Is Only Place of Importance That Slipped a Cog, Having Fewer People Within Her Borders Than in 1900.

Washington, D. C.—(Special).—E. Dana Durand, chief director of the census department, has made public the figures showing the population of every city, town and village in Kentucky.

These figures show that the Blue Grass state has 58 cities, seven of which—Louisville, Lexington, Newport, Paducah, Owensboro, Henderson and Frankfort—have population in excess of 10,000. Eleven cities have population ranging from 5,000 to 10,000. They are, in order of size, as follows: Hopkinsville, Bowling Green, Ashland, Middlesboro, Winchester, Dayton, Bellevue, Maysville, Mayfield, Danville and Richmond. There are 300 towns and 31 villages, making a total of 389 incorporations.

Analysis of the figures shows that Kentucky, like her sister states of the middle west, has grown chiefly during the past decade, in other words the tide of migration has been from the rural districts and smaller towns toward the larger centers of population. In many of the villages the population is below the 1900 mark. In the cities of between 5,000 and 10,000 Maysville is the only one that failed to keep step in the march of progress.

The population returns will be used as the basis for changing ward boundaries in every incorporated municipality in Kentucky and may be used by boards of education to change the school districts. These figures also will be used in redistricting the state for congressional and senatorial purposes.

Place.	1910.	1900.
Adairville	683	720
Albany	579	234
Alexandria	553	359
Allonsville	426	430
Anchorage	384	421
Arlington	555	584
Ashland	8,688	6,800
Athens	197	186
Auburn	631	697
Augusta	1,787	1,718
Bagdad	184	190
Bandana	327	205
Barbourville	1,633	1,014
Bardonia	2,126	1,711
Bardonia	1,087	1,512
Barlow	532	...
Barnesville	357	380
Baskett	270	...
Beattyville	1,360	696
Beaver Dam	762	552
Bedford	269	307
Beck Grove	208	...
Bellevue	6,683	6,332
Benton	824	664
Berea	1,510	762
Berry	339	250
Bethlehem	68	66
Birmingham	349	291
Blackford	449	243
Blaine	136	134
Blandville	229	277
Bloomfield	352	385
Bluff City	132	...
Bonnieville	257	270
Booneville	236	251
Boston	93	168
Bradford Green	9,173	8,226
Bradfordville	230	301
Brandenburg	482	218
Bremen	264	180
Briensburg	77	107
Brodhead	477	337
Brookly	819	543
Brookville	492	565
Brownsville	313	234
Bryansville	85	92
Buffalo	298	347
Burgin	679	703
Burkeville	817	...
Burkley	183	184
Burlington	172	...
Burnside	1,117	...
Butler	426	508
Cadiz	1,005	881
Calio	121	155
Calhoun	742	631
California	248	292
Calvert	124	127
Campbellburg	269	191
Campbellsville	1,206	1,341
Campton	326	276
Cane Valley	163	...
Caneville	430	294
Canmer	131	246
Carlele	1,293	1,377
Carrollton	1,908	2,205
Carrsville	298	278
Carter	259	...
Casselsburg	230	217
Catslettsburg	3,520	3,081
Cave City	645	538
Centertown	299	201
Central City	2,545	1,848
Cerulean Springs	272	190
Chaplin	170	...
Chicago	165	...
Clarkson	376	...
Clay	1,098	450
Clay City	561	585

Clinton	1,497	1,462	Middlesboro	7,305	4,163
Cloverport	1,403	1,658	Midway	937	1,045
Columbia	1,022	654	Millburn	207	272
Columbus	970	1,235	Millersburg	799	862
Concord	213	200	Milton	355	324
Corbin	2,589	1,544	Minerva	154	105
Corinth	252	331	Monterey	370	370
Corydon	942	782	Monticello	1,338	546
Covington	53,270	42,938	Morehead	1,105	1,100
Crab Orchard	467	385	Morganfield	2,725	2,046
Crittenden	189	199	Morgantown	569	587
Crofton	402	278	Mortons Gap	1,266	885
Cromwell	163	225	Mount Carmel	81	144
Cropper	159	162	Mount Eden	157	111
Curdsville	235	227	Mount Olivet	321	352
Cynthiana	3,603	3,257	Mount Pleasant	657	557
Danville	5,420	4,285	Mount Sterling	3,932	3,561
Dawson Springs	1,350	935	Mount Vernon	900	422
Dayton	6,979	6,104	Munfordville	475	440
Deanfield	75	365	Murray	2,089	1,822
Defoe	141	122	Nebo	298	237
Dexter	260	221	Nepton	235	293
Dixon	741	569	Now Castle	463	462
Dover	386	879	New Columbus	118	129
Drakesboro	1,126	226	New Haven	405	350
Dublin	125	99	New Hope	240	256
Dunmore	138	77	New Liberty	214	260
Dunnville	144	139	New Market	79	...
Dyersburg	176	219	Newfoundland	72	42
Earlington	3,331	3,012	Newport	30,309	28,301
East Bernstadt	698	...	Nicholasville	2,935	2,393
Eastview	77	127	North Middletown	390	434
Eddyville	1,442	1,210	North Pleasureville	235	228
Eden	381	412	Nortonville	254	...
Ekrone	168	...	Oakdale	2,073	...
Elizabethtown	1,970	1,861	Oakland	257	...
Elizaville	135	199	Olivo Hill	1,132	291
Elkhorn	94	87	Owensboro	16,011	13,189
Elkton	1,228	1,123	Owenton	1,024	1,014
Elsmere	900	519	Owingsville	942	958
Eminence	1,274	1,018	Paducah	22,760	19,446
Erlanger	700	453	Paintsville	942	541
Eubank	782	...	Paradise	91	107
Ezel	128	149	Paris	5,859	4,603
Fairfield	292	206	Pellville	104	145
Fairview	198	61	Pembroke	731	654
Fallsburg	134	159	Penrod	68	80
Falmouth	1,180	1,134	Perryville	407	431
Farmers	427	341	Petersburg	393	503
Farmington	1,136	113	Pewee Valley	651	464
Flat Gap	68	106	Pikeville	1,250	508
Flemingsburg	1,219	1,268	Pineville	2,161	2,072
Florenceville	250	258	Pittsburg	934	...
Ford	702	731	Pleasureville	522	272
Fordsville	649	586	Poole	179	198
Fort Mitchell	80	...	Poplar Plains	190	236
Foster	158	148	Port Royal	152	174
Fountain Run	188	...	Prestonburg	1,120	409
Frankfort	10,465	9,487	Prestonville	162	228
Franklin	3,063	2,166	Princeton	3,015	2,556
Fredonia	421	196	Proctor	143	217
Frenchburg	172	210	Providence	2,084	1,286
Fulton	2,575	2,860	Pryorsburg	242	250
Ferguson	404	...	Quincy	285	364
Georgetown	4,533	3,823	Raywick	182	140
Germantown	287	407	Render	300	426
Gest	87	126	Richmond	5,340	4,653
Ghent	421	569	Richmond	115	88
Gilbertsville	458	...	Robard	234	390
Glasgow	2,316	2,019	Rocheater	437	431
Glasgow Junction	303	224	Rockport	658	525
Glenroe	237	226	Rocky Hill	138	120
Gordonsville	43	117	Rosewood	59	82
Gracey	157	142	Rosine	166	224
Grango	106	143	Rowlets	232	198
Gratz	213	246	Rumsey	413	283
Grayson	735	606	Russell	1,098	743
Greensburg	450	564	Russell Springs	104	...
Greenup	680	711	Russellville	3,111	2,591
Greenville	1,604	1,051	Sacramento	438	434
Guthrie	1,096	807	Sandeville	467	532
Hanson	509	549	St. Charles	660	753
Hardin	366	240	St. Helens	151	170
Hardinsburg	737	689	St. Mary	154	...
Harrodsburg	3,147	2,876	Salem	320	208
Hartford City	976	785	Saloma	45	64
Hawesville	1,002	1,041	Salt Lick	522	...
Hazard	537	...	Saltersville	210	265
Hazel Green	257	225	Sanders	250	218
Heller	525	...	Sardis	261	257
Henderson	11,452	10,272	Science Hill	257	...
Hickman	2,736	1,589	Scottsville	1,327	824
Hickory Grove	148	250	Sebro	1,300	1,477
Highland Park	1,977	993	Sharpsburg	410	482
Hillsboro	182	227	Shelbyville	3,412	3,016
Hindman	370	331	Shepherdsville	318	277
Hillsville	179	178	Sherburne	253	251
Hodgesville	744	825	Shiloh	185	208
Hopkinsville	9,419	7,280	Skilleville	53	87
Horse Branch	103	...	Slaughterhouse	243	583
Horse Cave	881	867	Smithland	557	579
Huntsville	118	120	Smiths Grove	726	411
Hustonsville	384	425	Somerset	4,491	3,384
Hyden	318	269	Sonora	250	256
Independence	153	193	South Carrollton	365	452
Irvine	272	260	Southgate	627	...
Irvington	665	385	Sparta	107	...
Island	647	...	Spottsville	448	541
Jackson	1,346	941	Springfield	1,329	1,016
Jamestown	177	...	Stamping Ground	381	373
Jefferson	345	...	Stanford	1,532	1,651
Jeffersonville	86	84	Stanton	278	192
Jellico	746	322	Stephensport	265	241
Jonesville	648	168	Sturgis	1,467	1,258
Junction City	747	817	Sulphur	255	...
Kirkmansville	200	126	Summersville	320	...
Knottsville	212	209	Taylorville	622	615
Kuttawa	889	858	Tilton	113	103
La Center	426	...	Tolu	180	...
La Grange	1,152	646	Tompkinsville	639	366
Lafayette	266	199	Trenton	653	600
Lairsville	12	...	Turners Station	115	176
Lancaster	1,507	1,640	Tyrone	544	350
Lawrenceburg	1,723	1,253	Uniontown	1,532	1,532
Lebanon	3,077	3,043	Upton	141	125
Lebanon Junction	807	599	Vancsburg	1,145	1,161
Lee City	269	171	Versailles	2,268	2,337
Leitchfield	1,053	914	Vine Grove	570	487
Lenoxburg	65	81	Waddy	254	168
Lewislburg	253	239	Walnut Grove	174	99
Lewistown	596	328	Walton	650	538
Lexington	35,099	26,369	Warsaw	900	785
Liberty	330	450	Washington	433	575
Lily	161	...	Water Valley	228	254
Lisman	154	526	Waverly	311	...
Livermore	1,220	869	West Covington	1,751	1,606
Livingston	685	805	West Liberty	442	205
Lockport	163	166	West Louisville	192	210
London	1,838	1,147	West Point	782	489
Louisville	1,356	1,099	Wheatcroft	490	...
Ludlow	223,928	204,731	White Plains	281	200
Lynchburg	4,163	3,334	Whitesburg	321	194
Lynnville	118	56	Whitesville	452	449
McHenry	530	550	Whitley	167	...
McKee	146	106	Wickliffe	989	995
Mackville	190	171	Willard	177	578
Madisonville	4,966	3,628	Williamstown	2,004	1,495
Manchester	626	398	Williamstown	800	613
Manassas	109	104	Winchester	7,156	5,964
Marion	1,627	1,064	Wingo	404	418
Martinsburg	160	148	Woodburn	217	226
Mayfield	5,816	4,081	Woodbury	173	167
Mays Lick	308	237	Worthington	326	223
Maysville	6,141	6,423	Yosemite	98	207
Middleburg	93	132	Zion	224	...

SAVINGS OF MRS. SOLOMON

(Being Confessions of the 700th Wife, Translated for the Post-Dispatch, by Helen Rowland.)

Why, now, do men continue to mock and to cry out against the WEAKER SEX?

For I say unto thee, my daughter, of all the sexes that roam the earth, WHICH is the WEAKER SEX?

It is that sex which is too weak to hunt for its own collar buttons, too lazy to put away its own clothes, too weary to lift its cigar ashes into the ash tray, too feeble to clean its own safety razor?

Is it that sex which is too infirm to fix its own bath water and bring forth its clean shirt?

Is it that sex unto which must be yielded the most COMFORTABLE CHAIRS, the morning paper and ALL the tid-bits?

Is it that sex which is too frail to endure pain, and which howl and feareth to DIE, when it hath a toothache or a toeache?

Is it that sex which is too languid to arise and turn on the radiator or to lift the ice from off the dumb waiter?

Is it that sex which grabbeth the first seats in a street car, and afterward is too weak to STAND UP again, even though a damsel totteth upon its anointed toes?

Is it that sex which is too weak to resist a cocktail—or a woman?

Is it that sex which CANNOT withstand temptation, yet if temptations come not his way, goeth out and FINDETH them?

Is it that sex which cannot endure to be crossed or opposed, but which must be given its OWN WAY, even as a peevish babe?

Is it that sex which requireth constant stimulation from the cigarette, and constant flattery, and cooing, and baby talk from its lesser half?

Is it that sex which must be made COMFORTABLE, which must have its clothes cut LOOSE, and will not be bound down by clinging skirts or tight corsets, yet which mocketh and denounceth the trouserette upon a woman, who hath STRENGTH to endure her load?

Is it that sex which trembleth at the thought of matrimony, and goeth bleating unto the altar as a lamb to the slaughter?

Or is it that sex which blindeth itself in whalebone and steel, and loadeth itself down with frills and feathers; which liveth upon left-overs, and cheerfully faceth all things, even sarcasm and ridicule and criticism—yea, even LIFE WITH A MAN?

Tell me, my beloved, for I would know these things. SELAH!

Midnight in the Ozarks

And yet sleepless Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again." For all lung diseases, coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup, whooping cough, hay fever, hemorrhages, hoarseness or quinsy, it's the best known remedy. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by James H. Williams.

He Was a Half Dollar "In."

Pittsfield, Mass., April 22.—Chas. Connors

GRIM POVERTY KNOCKING AT THE PARENTS' DOOR

Spend Last Quarter For Poison and Administer Potion To Selves and Babies.

Chicago, April 22.—Fear of impending starvation caused a father and mother to administer strychnine to themselves and their two children, both under four years of age, to-day. The mother, Mrs. Honore Dzulgot, and the older child, Joseph, are dead, and the father and baby are in a hospital, where it is said both will recover.

Neighbors who heard moans coming from the Dzulgot cottage notified the police, who found the woman and boy dead and the others only partially conscious.

Dzulgot in the hospital to-night told of the poverty which followed his long illness, and then related the desperate agreement with his wife that the two should poison themselves and their babies.

"With my last 25 cents," he said, "I bought the poison at a drugstore. I took it home and my wife and I mixed it in the little milk we had left. The milk was the only food we had in the house. Some was given to the children, my wife drank some and I drank the remainder. There was not enough for me or I would have died with my wife and boy."

"I stayed with my sick wife until all my money was gone. I could get nothing to do and we did not want to live and see the little ones suffer. To-day we decided it was no use to try any longer, and agreed it was better to die than to starve and see the children starve before our eyes."

HEFLIN.

April 23.—Little Harlan Nance, who had been sick for some time, died Saturday morning at 3 o'clock and was buried at Green Brier cemetery Sunday. Several from this place attended the burial.

Mr. A. V. Rowan and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bennett, of Beda, spent Sunday with Mrs. Bettie Whitaker.

Mr. Herman Pirtle, wife and children, of Noe creek, visited Mr. and Mrs. Alex Carson at this place Sunday.

Mrs. Antha Rowan and little daughter Rosamond, of —, spent Saturday with Mrs. Martha Rowan and Ann Holbrooks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pirtle and children, of Noe creek, spent Sunday with Mr. Willis Heflin and family.

Messrs. Walter Foster and Marvin Barnard, of Noe creek, visited his brother, Mr. J. W. Foster and family, here Sunday.

Little Alex Carson Johnson has been very sick, but is better.

CENTERTOWN.

April 23.—Miss Willie Smith, of Hartford, was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Allen, of near Horton, visited her sister, Mrs. Garfield Barnard, at this place last week.

Colie James and wife spent last Sunday with their parents, Mr. W. L. James and wife, at Matanzas.

Mrs. Harve Hill is at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Brown, near Rockport, who is dangerously ill.

Mrs. S. A. Bratcher, of Hartford, visited J. A. Bilbro and wife here last week.

Mr. H. B. Bean has completed an addition to his already beautiful residence, which adds much to the appearance of his home.

Mrs. Alvin Rowe has been on the sick list the last few days.

Mr. Vig Morton, of Livermore, was in town one day last week.

Rev. J. W. Bruner, of Hartford, preached a very interesting sermon at the Baptist church here last Friday night to a large congregation.

Mr. C. M. Swain, who has been sick for quite awhile, we are glad to note is able to be on the streets again.

Miss Laura Taul visited relatives at McHenry last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Agla Tichenor, Williams Mines, visited her mother, Mrs. Lou Maddox, here last Sunday.

PRENTIS.

April 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hobdy's little three-year-old boy died and was buried at the Patterson graveyard near here, April 9.

Mr. H. B. Taylor attended the burial of Mr. Lewis Brown at Taylortown yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. French and Mrs. Allen Gentry went to Beaver Dam last Saturday.

Mr. S. A. Davenport, of Rochester, was in this neighborhood last Thursday.

Mr. W. A. Casebier went to Rockport one day last week.

Messrs. W. L. Shultz, Carl Barnes and M. Miller went to Beaver Dam yesterday.

Mr. J. W. Wilson went to Hartford last Monday.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

Com'th vs. Clarence Dillard, continued, and defendant released on his own recognizance in the sum of $100.

Com'th vs. Chas. Condor, verdict of jury guilty, and fined $50.

Com'th vs. R. P. Her, (4 cases), stricken off.

Com'th vs. George Thomas, same order.

Com'th vs. Perry Tichenor, same order.

Com'th vs. H. E. Blizen, plea of guilty, law and facts to court and fined $5.

Com'th vs. John A. Reltz & Son, same order.

Com'th vs. L. C. Robertson, same order.

Com'th vs. J. F. Langley, same order.

Com'th vs. E. R. Baker, same order.

Com'th vs. Mrs. R. L. Canan, same order.

Com'th vs. I. K. Hendricks, same order.

Com'th vs. Pearl Reed, plea of guilty, law and facts to the court and fined 1 cent and costs.

The following cases were continued for process:

Com'th vs. Cordelia Denison, Mack Shopper, Robert Bruner, John Myers, Hockley, Phelps, Bonnelle Co., E. L. Wells, A. E. Smith, Pearl Tichenor.

Com'th vs. Warren Kelly, defendant failing to answer, indictment taken for confessed, law and facts to the court and fined $25 and 10 days in jail.

Com'th vs. Will McKey, verdict of jury guilty, and punishment from 2 to 7 years in penitentiary.

Com'th vs. Melvin Grant, plea of guilty of detaining a female against her will, entered and jury fixed his punishment at from 2 to 7 years in the penitentiary. Grant was conveyed to the penitentiary by Sheriff T. H. Black last Friday.

The grand jury, before adjourning last Friday, returned into court sixteen indictments, classified as follows:

Detaining a female against her will, 1; gaming, 7; furnishing liquor to a minor, 1; carrying concealed a deadly weapon, 3; stabbing and wounding, 1; injuring public schoolhouse, 2; assault and battery, 1.

Jury Trials—Ordinary Docket.

George Foreman vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., verdict of jury, $187.50 for plaintiff.

Robert Robinson vs. Broadway Coal Mining Co., continued.

G. W. Powers vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., verdict of jury $350 for plaintiff.

Emma Stewart vs. I. C. R. R. Co., dismissed.

John T. Lowe vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., verdict of jury, $50 for plaintiff.

J. J. Roberts vs. L. H. & St. L. Co., verdict of jury, $180 for plaintiff.

James Wyson vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., set forward to Thursday, 10th day.

J. C. Williams vs. I. C. R. R. Co., verdict of jury, $250 for plaintiff.

H. H. Pendleton vs. Broadway Coal Mining Co., agreed judgment $100.

J. C. Leach vs. Wm. Daugherty, verdict of jury for defendant.

J. W. Condor vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., verdict of jury, $250 for plaintiff.

A. F. Graham vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., continued.

Fred Midkiff vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., set forward to Thursday, the 10th day.

E. F. Renter vs. I. C. R. R. Co., verdict of jury, $142.50 for plaintiff.

S. I. Boslev vs. M. H. & E. R. Co., verdict of jury for defendant.

METHODIST CHURCH.

The third quarterly meeting for the Hartford charge will be held at Goshen next Saturday and Sunday. Preaching at 11 a. m. Saturday and Sunday. Quarterly Conference at 3 p. m., Saturday. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper Sunday. Everybody cordially invited and a full attendance of official members desired.

Important Notice.

All parties having claims against the Bank of Centertown are hereby requested to meet with the assignee of said bank at the bank's office in Centertown, Ky., on Saturday, April 29th, 1911, at 10 o'clock a. m.

ALVIN ROWE, Assignee.

AWFUL CRIME CHARGED AGAINST LABOR LEADERS

In Finding of Large Quantity of Dynamite—Morrison Doubts Their Guilt.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 24.—The Marion county grand jury to-day took up an investigation as to the finding of dynamite in the building occupied by the offices of John J. McNamara.

Prosecutor Baker declared: "Everybody will be given a square deal."

Two theories will be followed in the investigations. One that McNamara placed the dynamite in the building; second that it was "planted" by outside forces to bring about his arrest.

Baker said he was not certain the grand jury could go into the manner of McNamara's arrest and his being rushed from the State. "The statutes provide the procedure to be followed in cases of this kind," said Baker, "and you may judge for yourself whether it was followed."

Baker said local police officials and all persons who could shed light on the case would be called. The Iron Workers' books and papers taken by the detectives were secured by the grand jury.

Following the storm of protest as a result of the measures taken in getting John J. McNamara out of Indiana, Governor Marshall to-day assured F. M. Ryan, president of the Structural Iron Workers, and Attorney Rattaport that if any more requisitions come here from California for persons wanted with the alleged dynamiting, he will take steps to see that the accused will have a hearing in court with an attorney before they can be extradited. Gov. Marshall said he would make this one of the conditions of the State warrants.

Statement by Labor Leader.

Washington, April 24.—Setting forth the attitude of the American Federation of Labor in the arrest of the Iron Workers officials, Frank Morrison to-day wrote the following statement for the United Press:

"It will take more evidence than I have read to convince me that McNamara has any connection whatever with the Los Angeles Times catastrophe or the destruction of property of any kind. The forcible abduction of McNamara could not but call forth condemnation of all citizens who honestly desire that all receive equal protection from the officers of the State."

Case in Nutsheff.

Following is the status of the dynamite conspiracy case to date:

April 13.—Ortie E. McManigal, of Chicago, arrested at Detroit. James M. McNamara, of Cincinnati, arrested at Detroit. Dynamite and bomb materials found in their effects.

April 14.—Pair taken to Chicago.

April 22.—McManigal reported to have confessed, implicating many others and telling of other bomb outrages perpetrated by him and McNamara, involving the loss of over 100 lives and property damage of $3,500,000. James J. McNamara arrested in Indianapolis by Detective Burns. Prisoners, under heavy guard, started for Los Angeles, Jas. McNamara and McManigal on one train and John McNamara on another.

April 24.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared his belief in the innocence of the men and announced that the federation would fight for them. James McNamara reported to have told detectives neither he nor McManigal would reach Los Angeles alive. Detectives begin search for large dynamite "plant" in Chicago. John J. McNamara disappears en route to Los Angeles, with his police guard. Ruse to prevent his being killed or rescued. American Federation of Labor raising huge fund to defend the men. Kidnaping charge is made at Indianapolis against the men who caused the arrest and rushed J. J. McNamara from Indiana. Grand jury at Indianapolis begins an investigation.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

B. A. Maden, Hartford, route 1, to Georgia T. Allen, Hartford, route 1.

Noel Foreman, Hartford, route 6, to Bessie V. Fielden, Hartford, route 6.

Geo. W. Cox, Hartford, route 1, to Ollie May York, Hartford.

The Pope is somewhat indisposed and has been cautioned by his physician to avoid over-exertion.

The U. S. postal savings bank at Madisonville, the second in this State will open May 1st.

MILITARY PUNISHMENTS.

Times When Rebellious Soldiers Gambled For Their Lives.

In times past the military code in England was no less stern and uncompromising than the civil. Sentence of death was readily decreed and as promptly executed. Where offenses multiplied and wholesale executions would have weakened the army numerically—decimation—the slaughter of every tenth man—was the rule, or the troops gambled for their lives by casting dice upon a drumhead or drawing lots under the gallows tree.

Lesser penalties—not capital, but physical, and causing pain with permanent degradation—were maiming, branding the cheek or forehead, boring the tongue or cutting the nose and ears. These last named were retained upon the military statute book until the reign of Queen Anne. The "trap-pado" was a fiendish device by which a delinquent was hoisted on high by a rope fastened to his arms and then dropped down by a sudden jerk that often dislocated his shoulders. Hanging by the thumbs, sometimes called "picketing," was also practiced, while the body was raised to such a height that its whole weight rested on one toe, and that again on a sharp pointed spike.

To "ride the wooden horse" was to be mounted on a razor edge, with weights fastened to the extremities.

"Running the gantlet, or 'gantelope,' was as old as the Cromwellian army, and it is thus described in an army order about 1640: The culprit (who had been guilty of blasphemy as well as deer stealing) were to be 'stripped naked from the waist upward and a lane made by half the lord general's regiment of foot and half Colonel Pride's, with every man a cudgel in his hand. They were to be run through in this posture so that every soldier might have a stroke at their naked backs, breasts or arms wherever it might alight.'—Pearson's.

GETTING TIRED.

Fatigue That Follows Monotony of Work or Exercise.

It is said that for horses the hardest road out of London is the most level one. There are no hills to climb and descend, and the tired horse has no chance to rest one set of muscles while another works. Monotony produces fatigue, and because this particular road is one dead, monotonous level more horses die on it than on any other leading out of London.

We can even take a charitable view of the time taken daily by the typewriter girl for the arrangement of her hair. Her fingers are congested by the work of writing and tired by contact with the hard keys of her machine, and the different feeling of her hair and the little plays and movements of her fingers in adjusting it are a distinct stimulation and relief.

Fatigue following long continued exercise is really a mild form of illness which arises from overexerting some one part of the body. In writing, for instance, the fingers move up and down hardly more than a quarter of an inch as they travel across the page. Yet this is hard work for their little muscles and burns up tissue in the fingers very fast. If rest intervals are too short and infrequent, there is not time for the removal of the waste products of this destruction through the normal channels of the body and congestion results. "The feeling of fatigue or pain that follows long continued use of any of the muscles is due to the influence of such poisonous material, as well as to the stretching of the tissues caused by the pressure of the blood which settles there."—Paul W. Goldsby in Atlantic.

Puzzled the Englishman.

A Philadelphian who had been entertaining a friend from London for several days noticed that his guest appeared to be in deep thought at dinner the other evening. "What's the matter?" he asked, frowning that the Englishman was ill or worried or homesick. "I'm rathber puzzled, old chap," replied the Londoner. "I really can't make out what the blawsted boulder meant. I was lost in your city the other day, and I dropped into an apartment house to ask my way. A fellow was loading freight on a bally lift. I awaked him, 'Me good man, can you tell me how far down is Spruce street?' And that fellow said, 'I don't know, old top; my elevator only runs to the basement.' Now, what the dickens did that bloke mean?"—Philadelphia Record.

Largest Ice River.

The great antarctic river discovered by Lieutenant Shackleton is the largest ice river known and represents the only visible outflow from the vast ice sheet of the southern continent. This the Beardmore glacier descends 6,000 feet between sandstone hills and is 100 miles long by 50 wide. The Malaspina glacier in Alaska covers nearly 600 square miles, Himalayan glaciers reach a length of twenty miles, and the longest Alpine glacier is sixteen miles.

Harking Back.

"You were telling Miss Ganssisp this morning that you were going to be married again, weren't you?" said the shrewd man.

"Why, yes," the widower gasped in surprise. "How did you know?"

"After you left her she began to count on her fingers."—Philadelphia Press.

Diplomatic.

Knicker—Did they name the baby for a wealthy relative so he would leave something? Hooker—No. They named it for the cook so she wouldn't leave.—Judge.

WE MAKE THE PRICE

The poultry business of this county having grown to such enormous proportions, we realized last season that in order to get the best results from its sale, some concern who had the ability to handle and the prestige and influence to get the best price, must take a special interest in marketing the farmers' surplus. We believed that we were the concern who could do it. We believe we have fully demonstrated to the farmers that we have made a phenomenal success. Wednesday and Thursday, April 12 and 13, we loaded two big cars and had one-half car still in our warehouses, waiting for another car to arrive. FARMER FRIENDS, this sounds like you are progressing. Let's start in now with a determination to produce more stuff along every line, and remember that we love to work for you and that we are always at your service. This same prestige in connection with the almighty dollar gets the lowest price on the merchandise we sell. We make our price to everybody and that price is the lowest that is consistent with legitimate merchandising. Everybody is placed on an equal footing at this store, whether we buy or whether we sell. We do the best we can for the farmer who wants to sell as well as the farmer who wants to buy. We can be of service to you.

E. P. Barnes & Bro.,

Beaver Dam, Kentucky.

MAXWELL.

April 24.—Rev. J. W. Crowe, of Livermore, filled his regular appointment at New Bethel Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. G. E. Barr and daughter Hattie May, of Maxwell, went to Owensboro Thursday and returned Friday.

Miss Ella Crowe gave an Easter hunt. A large crowd attended and it was very much enjoyed by all. Mr. Ed Crowe and Miss Louise Riley, being the lucky ones, got the cake.

Mrs. Clemmie Calhoun, who has been very ill, is convalescent.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Crowe Jarvis, of Buel, a fine girl.

Mrs. Ludy Jolly is very ill.

Miss Lockie May Atherton, of Nuckles, is visiting Miss Ella Crowe. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hudson and daughter Pearl went to Hartford Thursday.

Kicked by a Mad Horse.

Samuel Birch, of Beetown, Wis., had a narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. It's the greatest healer of ulcers, burns, boils, eczema, scalds, cuts, corns, cold-sores, bruises and piles on earth. Try it, 25c at James H. Williams.

FRIEDLAND.

April 22.—Wheat and grass promises an abundant harvest.

Mr. J. O. Sandbach lost his fine saddle mare Tuesday.

F. M. Hoover returned home from Louisville Thursday. He had been purchasing goods for L. S. Hoover & Sons.

H. D. Burch has added another room to his storehouse and is using it for clothing only.

R. F. Jenkins preached an interesting sermon at Cane Run church Sunday.

Business is flourishing in our town, and the clerks in the stores are kept busy most of the time.

For Constipation.

Mr. L. H. Farnham, a prominent druggist of Spirit Lake, Iowa, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation." Give these tablets a trial. You are certain to find them agreeable and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by all dealers.

CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK

For the refined and dainty woman is what she demands now. Americans are up-to-date on dentistry, and are not satisfied with anything but the acme of perfection in dental work. Teeth extracted with as little pain as possible. Children given careful attention. Special attention to plate work and ALL WORK GUARANTEED. Work done at lowest prices.

DR. H. J. BELL,

Office in Republican Building, HARTFORD, - KY.